

TALLOWOOD STEINER SCHOOL

ENLIVENING EDUCATION

Position available for 2026:

First Nations Education (Gumbaynggirr) Worker - Part Time
(5.5 hours per week during school term times)

Tallowood Steiner School is a growing, independent school, in Bowraville, NSW. Interconnectedness is fundamental to our approach - working collaboratively, celebrating diversity, and learning about equity. Tallowood staff are encouraged to work from their strengths, engage collaboratively with their colleagues and enrich students' learning through story, art and connection with nature.

We are seeking a passionate and experienced First Nations (Gumbaynggirr) Education worker to join our dedicated team. The successful applicant will play a crucial role in delivering Gumbaynggirr and broader First Nations perspectives into our Steiner education curriculum, ensuring cultural relevance and authenticity.

We aim to maintain positive partnerships with the Gumbaynggirr community, Elders and local AECG. This role will focus on enhancing the educational experience and outcomes for Aboriginal students and promoting cultural awareness, understanding and appreciation within the school community.

Essential Criteria

- Demonstrated ability to foster positive, healthy, kind and respectful relationships with students, staff and community.
- Demonstrated knowledge and understanding of First Nations cultures, histories and contemporary issues.
- Demonstrated ability to provide support and guidance to educators in creating culturally sensitive and relevant teaching programs.
- Relevant qualifications in education support, Aboriginal studies, or a related field.
- Commitment to ongoing professional development in the areas of Aboriginal education and cultural responsiveness
- Current NSW Working With Children Check.

Please forward an application with a cover letter addressing the essential criteria, your CV and the contact details of two referees to the Principal:
