

Second Sharing

Second Presbyterian Church

Dedicated to Jesus Christ, we are committed to making a difference by caring for one another, growing in our ministries, and reaching beyond ourselves.

KAIROS CORNER

September, 2025

A couple of months ago, we dove into the process of creating a new logo for our congregation. Logo updates are tricky enough, but doing it while the Cracker Barrel logo drama was all over the news? Let's just say the timing made our task feel like "daunting with a capital D."

The designers, however, were unphased. They listened to how we described our congregation—our values, our commitments, our place within our community. They looked at the images of our building we sent them, since the process revealed how much the physical space meant to us. And they attended to our ideas about possible colors and fonts, as well as what we hoped our logo might "say" to our neighbors.

With all the fanfare a newsletter article can muster, here's our new logo:

I wonder if you recognize the image that accompanies the font? It's been hidden in plain sight in our sanctuary for just a bit longer than 100 years now. Shoot me an email to share where you think you've seen it. While I may not award a prize to the first right answer, be assured you will impress me if you get it right!

I was relieved to learn that our new logo is really a nod to our past. Our long history of loving our neighbors as we reach beyond ourselves, our commitment to care for one another, our desire to continue to walk the way of discipleship as God draws us more deeply into the story of God's love... it's a beautiful history that is unfolding into the future to which God is leading us

We will slowly begin the integration of our new logo into our communications, including a redesigned website that will be much more user-friendly. As we are still working to align our staff for this new season, your patience is a great gift.

Be sure to let me hear from you if you can tell me where the image comes from.

With gratitude and hope,

Pastor John

Bible Explorers (Room 202 – 2nd Floor)

Interested in studying the Bible with others searching for more depth in interpreting the scriptures? The Bible Explorers class offers that each week during the Sunday school hour. Using The Bible Project, we review short videos that prompt conversation about the Bible that leads to a crucial question for class discussion: What wisdom can I find in the Biblical stories that is applicable to my daily life? This year, we'll be studying the Prophets, taking an in-depth look at the Gospel of Matthew and several of the Epistles of Paul. Join us and dive deeper into theological concepts and rediscover the Bible as it speaks to you today! Contact Shawn Caudill (tscaud1@uky.edu) for more information.

Forum Program: Forum Room - 1st Floor Hallway) - A weekly talk or video presentation about a variety of topics that connect the church with concerns of community and cultural significance. Scheduled topics for September include:

- September 14: Doris Settles, who penned the book "Kentucky and the War of 1812," will tell us about the state's large role in that war and how much more important the war was than most people realize. Dressed as a woman from that time, Doris will take you on a journey with the brave soldiers and one porcine pal.
- September 21: A Reader's Theater performance featuring poems from the book "Troublesome Rising: A Thousand-Year Flood in Eastern Kentucky" edited by Melissa Helton, who will join us to talk about the catastrophic flash flood that claimed the lives of more than 40 people and devastated homes and communities in Central Appalachia in late July 2022.
- September 28: Carolyn DuPont of Braver Angels out of Jessamine County is helping to start a group in Lexington. Braver Angels works to promote healthy dialogue between political groups. They are doing a workshop to teach empathetic listening to a group of people from both sides of the political spectrum on Oct. 18. They do not seek to change minds – just to find common values and respect for the other. Second Presbyterian's Jeanette Coufal and Shawn Caudill are interested in starting a group.

FOR THE HEALTH OF IT

Cast your cares on the Lord and He will sustain you.

Psalm 55:22

As a caregiver, taking good care of yourself is one of the most important things to do. While caregiving can be meaningful, it can also be challenging and you need to be able to take on the task.

This can involve asking family or friends to help out, making time for what you enjoy, or getting home health involved. Here are some helpful hints:

- ♦ Join a caregiver support group. You can pick up good information and hints as well as emotional support.
- ♦ Be sure to take breaks every day. Get a change in scenery.
- ♦ Keep your other interests going. Spend time with friends.
- ♦ Eat a healthy diet and get regular exercise.
- ♦ Keep up with your own medical care

Asking for help is more than ok. It is essential. Keep a notebook of needed tasks and observations so that someone else can help give consistent care.

We are participating In One A-Chord in conjunction with the 250LEX Commission and the celebration of the city of Lexington, Kentucky. This week-long celebration will have 25 events at 25 different churches. Creating a community through singing is beautiful, emotional, exciting, uplifting. Audience members can request songs from the hymnal, too. And arrangements of hymns will be sung by our Covenant Choir.

This is a free event promoted by the 250LEX, but sign up is encouraged. Look for the registration link in the upcoming E-Blast. We expect guests, as well as our congregants, to join us for a time of uplifting music. Invite a friend to come and join you!

Your insights are incredibly valuable and will directly inform how aging services are planned and delivered in the future. To participate, go to https://uky.az1.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_cx0tAQn8gdBu2A6. If you have any questions or need assistance, please don't hesitate to reach out to us at abbie.latimer@uky.edu or lynden.bond@uky.edu or 859-257-1267. Bottle Cap Collection

Due to changes in Lexington/Fayette Urban County Government recycling program, the Mission Committee of Second Presbyterian will no longer be collecting bottle caps for the recycling program where benches were made for local groups/agencies. Through the years, many local groups benefited from these collections and the efforts of individuals to donate the caps, sort, clean and deliver the caps to the site in Indiana and to bring back and deliver the finished products are truly appreciated. Thank you!

Meet Our Newest Staff Members!

Katie Baird—Assistant Director of Children and Youth Ministry

Hi, I'm Katie! I recently graduated in May with my bachelor's degree in Psychology, and I'm currently pursuing my master's in Clinical Mental Health Counseling at Eastern Kentucky University. I have a strong passion for mental health, especially when it comes to supporting children and helping them grow into who God created them to be.

I've spent a lot of time serving and growing in the church, and that experience has deeply shaped my heart for ministry and people. Outside of school and ministry, I'm a big fan of coffee, beach days, and painting! They're some of my favorite ways to recharge and find inspiration. I'm so excited to see how God uses me in this ministry and how He continues to shape it for His glory.

Liam John Schippers — Co-Director of Kids for the Kingdom Choir

As a rising sophomore attending the University of Kentucky, I sincerely look forward to making music with the youth in our community and those at church. I believe God always has a message, if we are willing to hear it; especially through his gift of music. For God's message is fundamental in our lives, and the spirit can be plentiful if we carry it in our daily life. I am most excited to lead the kids towards Christ, and teach them my favorite songs that I learned as a kid.

Thank you all very much, and I'll see you around!

Abigail Royal—Co-Director of Kids for the Kingdom Choir

Hi! I'm a choral music education and piano performance major from a small town in Alabama. I also play clarinet in the wildcat marching band.

I've been teaching children piano and choir at a fine arts camp in my hometown since I was in middle school. I plan to teach music, either choir or band, at a school once I graduate from UK.

SECOND PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH HONORS SCARLET HALL FOR 10 YEARS OF DEDICATED SERVICE!

This year, Second Presbyterian Church joyfully celebrates another significant milestone—Scarlet Hall's 10th anniversary as Director of Finance and Operations. Though many may not know Scarlet personally due to church policy requiring this position be held by a non-member—for the sake of privacy and objectivity—her impact is felt daily in every corner of church life.

Scarlet essentially serves as the Chief Operating Officer of Second Presbyterian. She ensures that all financial matters are carefully documented, executed, and reported, providing crucial support to church committees and boards as they plan budgets and carry out their missions. Beyond the numbers, Scarlet manages the church's administrative and maintenance staff, as well as its dedicated volunteers. She also plays an integral role in helping the Trustees manage the church's buildings and property. In short, Scarlet is one of the key people who keeps everything running smoothly behind the scenes.

Scarlet's journey to Second began in Washington County, Kentucky, where she grew up on a farm. She attended the University of Kentucky, earning a degree in Accounting. After marrying Jim Hall, the couple moved to Michigan, where they raised three children—Lauren, Austin, and Sidney. In 2011, the family returned to Kentucky, settling in Lawrenceburg to be closer to family. Scarlet joined the staff at Second in 2015, after a career spent exclusively in the private sector. Over the past decade, Scarlet has faithfully served through the leadership of three Senior Pastors, bringing consistency, adaptability, and unwavering dedication to her role.

Thank you, Scarlet, for keeping the wheels turning and for being such a vital part of the life and mission of Second Presbyterian Church!
