Jesus uses two different examples of a good disciple—salt of the earth and light of the world. While these images seem to have little in common, there are similarities, the most obvious being that a little of either goes a long way. Just a pinch of salt can change the taste of food. Similarly, when we wake up in a dark room, one light bulb can be blinding. So also, a little faith can make a big difference. The faith of little children can bring their parents back to the Church. The way we live our faith can speak even louder.

Isaiah gives us some hints in the first reading when he writes about feeding the hungry and giving shelter to the homeless and clothes to the poor. When someone has so much faith that it shows in their actions, as Isaiah puts it, “Your light shall break forth like the dawn.” But we sometimes get things backwards. If we do the things Isaiah tells the people to do, we might think that the deeds will give us faith. But faith is the source of those actions, not the result. If we truly believe in God’s love for us, and we believe that God lives in the people around us, especially the poor, then we will want to show our love by caring for each other.

When we do have faith, we don’t have to worry about how people react to us. Like St. Paul in the second reading, we don’t need to be dramatic or full of worldly wisdom. As he preached the wisdom of Christ who died on the cross and was raised from the dead by the power of the Spirit, he let people see that power in the lives of other believers as well as his own life.

But if we don’t have faith, then we are like the salt that has lost its flavor. A low-salt diet may be good for us; but a low-salt faith, instead of making things better, would make them worse. Without faith in God’s love for us, we would not respond with love of our own. We could still be a good person, but we would not be a very good disciple. We could not spread the faith if we didn’t have it ourselves.

ABCD 2026

Our community is called to reflect Christ’s peace, light, and love. Your gift to the ABCD brings the Gospel to life through countless ministries and services. Let us stand united One in Faith, One in Hope, and One in Charity. Give today, and be the difference.

Jesús usa dos ejemplos diferentes de un buen discípulo: sal de la tierra y luz del mundo. Aunque estas imágenes parecen tener poco en común, existen similitudes; la más obvia es que un poco de cualquiera de las dos hace una gran diferencia. Una simple pizca de sal puede cambiar el sabor de la comida. De igual manera, cuando nos despertamos en una habitación oscura, una sola bombilla puede cegarnos. Así también, un poco de fe puede hacer una gran diferencia. La fe de los niños pequeños puede hacer que sus padres regresen a la Iglesia. La forma en que vivimos nuestra fe puede hablar aún más fuerte.

Isaías nos da algunas pistas en la primera lectura cuando escribe sobre alimentar a los hambrientos, dar techo a los sin techo y ropa a los pobres. Cuando alguien tiene tanta fe que se refleja en sus acciones, como dice Isaías: “Entonces surgirá tu luz como la aurora”. Pero a veces entendemos las cosas al revés. Si hacemos lo que Isaías les dice, podríamos pensar que las obras nos darán fe.

Pero la fe es la fuente de esas acciones, no el resultado. Si realmente creemos en el amor de Dios por nosotros y creemos que Dios vive en quienes nos rodean, especialmente en los pobres, entonces vamos a querer demostrar nuestro amor cuidándonos unos a otros.

Cuando tenemos fe, no tenemos que preocuparnos por cómo reaccionan los demás. Como San Pablo en la segunda lectura, no necesitamos ser dramáticos ni estar llenos de sabiduría mundana. Al predicar la sabiduría de Cristo, quien murió en la cruz y resucitó por el poder del Espíritu, dejó que la gente viera ese poder en la vida de otros creyentes, así como en la suya propia.

Pero si no tenemos fe, somos como la sal que ha perdido su sabor. Una dieta de baja sal puede ser buena para nosotros; pero una fe de baja sal, en lugar de mejorar las cosas, las empeoraría. Sin fe en el amor de Dios por nosotros, no responderíamos con nuestro propio amor. Podríamos seguir siendo buenas personas, pero no seríamos muy buenos discípulos. No podríamos difundir la fe si no la tuviéramos nosotros mismos.

Nuestra comunidad está llamada a reflejar la paz, la luz y el amor de Cristo. Su donación al ABCD da vida al Evangelio a través de innumerables ministerios y servicios. Mantengámonos unidos en la fé, en la esperanza y en la caridad. Done hoy y marque la diferencia.
