Palm Sunday of the Lord's Passion

“Because of this, God greatly exalted him and bestowed on him the name which is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend, of those in heaven and on earth and under the earth”

- Philippians 2:9-10

Domingo de Ramos De la Pasión del Señor

“Por eso Dios lo exaltó sobre todas las cosas y le otorgó el nombre que está sobre todo nombre para que, al nombre de Jesús, todos doblen la rodilla en el cielo, en la tierra y en los abismos”.

- Filipenses 2,9-10

TRULY THIS WAS THE SON OF GOD

Matthew 27:54

Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord

Today's passage from Isaiah presents us with a common human dilemma: what to we do with our suffering? The speaker describes himself as God's faithful servant, who suffers beatings and mockery. We can't be sure who the speaker is, but we can see his extraordinary response. He chooses to endure with hope that God, in God's own way, will deliver and vindicate him. Christians later saw this passage as a poignant description of Jesus' suffering in his passion.

We all have many experiences of tragic or undeserved suffering. We might desire to run from our pain, or to inflict suffering upon others, or to live in despair. In faith, we are invited to share in the suffering of Jesus, sharing also with all who suffer similarly. We can place our wounds in God's hands. We may live in enduring hope that Christ is indeed present and accompanies us in our pain. In God's own way, our suffering may be transformed, so to serve God's purposes.

A NEW KINGDOM

The Gospel of Matthew, using various symbols from scripture, presents Jesus as the true victorious king who begins a new kingdom. After his royal entrance into Jerusalem, Jesus ascends his scandalous and paradoxical throne, the cross. The cross reveals the nature of his kingdom, based on God's forgiveness and sacrificial love. Evil forces thrive when violence stirs even more violence. By accepting his suffering and offering forgiveness, Jesus broke the primary cycle of violence. The Gospels proclaim that the powers of evil, though continuing their effects today, were decisively defeated on the cross.

The resurrection of Jesus launches the reign of God, which will be fully complete upon Jesus' return. We are now offered a new path for being human by which, empowered by the Holy Spirit, we may partner with God to create new cycles of life and hope.

Domingo de Ramos de la Pasión del Señor

El pasaje de hoy de Isaías nos presenta un dilema humano común: ¿qué hacemos con nuestro sufrimiento? El orador se describe a sí mismo como un fiel siervo de Dios, que sufre golpes y burlas. No podemos estar seguros de quién es el orador, pero podemos ver su respuesta extraordinaria. Elige aguantar con la esperanza de que Dios, a su manera, lo libraré y lo vindicará. Más tarde, los cristianos vieron este pasaje como una descripción conmovedora del sufrimiento de Jesús en su pasión.

Todos tenemos muchas experiencias de sufrimiento trágico o innecesario. Podríamos desear huir de nuestro dolor, o infligir sufrimiento a otros, o vivir en la desesperación. En la fe, estamos invitados a compartir el sufrimiento de Jesús, compartiendo también con todos los que sufren de manera similar. Podemos poner nuestras heridas en las manos de Dios. Podemos vivir en la esperanza permanente de que Cristo está realmente presente y nos acompaña en nuestro dolor. A la manera de Dios, nuestro sufrimiento puede ser transformado, para que sirva a los propósitos de Dios.

UN NUEVO REINO

El Evangelio de Mateo, utilizando varios símbolos de las Escrituras, presenta a Jesús como el verdadero rey victorioso que inicia un nuevo reino. Después de su entrada real en Jerusalén, Jesús asciende a su trono escandaloso y paradójico, la cruz. La cruz revela la naturaleza de su reino, basado en el perdón y el amor sacrificial de Dios. Las fuerzas del mal prosperan cuando la violencia suscita aún más violencia. Al aceptar su sufrimiento y ofrecer perdón, Jesús rompió el ciclo primario de violencia. Los Evangelios proclaman que los poderes del mal, aunque continúan sus efectos hoy, fueron derrotados decisivamente en la cruz.

La resurrección de Jesús inicia el reino de Dios, que estará completamente completo con el regreso de Jesús. Ahora se nos ofrece un nuevo camino para ser humanos por el cual, empoderados por el Espíritu Santo, podemos asociarnos con Dios para crear nuevos ciclos de vida y esperanza.
