Today's Gospel has some surprises for the disciples going to Emmaus. The first is that Luke tells us Jesus appeared to them, "but their eyes were prevented from recognizing him" (Luke 24:16). Now I don't think Jesus was wearing glasses like Clark Kent. More likely, they were prevented by their lack of faith. They knew that Jesus had died, so this man who looked familiar couldn't be him. All they had heard was that Jesus' body was missing from the tomb. Luke says they were debating, as if they couldn't decide what to believe.

That leads to the second point. No, they were not surprised that the "stranger" could quote Scripture. Most Jewish men were familiar with the scriptures, but they were amazed at how Jesus explained them. Even the disciples had not thought of them as predicting Jesus' suffering and death. Yet they seem to know the truth of what Jesus was saying. Their hearts were burning with the fire of the Holy Spirit, who helped them to understand the new meaning of Scripture. Their story can help us, too.

If you find you are not always able to see Jesus in the people or events of your life, you may need to stretch your faith. One way to do that is to discuss it with others. The two disciples were stretching their faith as they discussed what they had heard. Even better, debate it with someone who doesn't believe. (Remember to keep it friendly.) You may not convince them to change, but your faith will grow as you learn to express it. Another way to stretch your faith is to read and pray over the scriptures. Ask what God is trying to tell you in them. The disciples on the way to Emmaus began to see how Jesus fulfilled the promises found there. Passages that may have been mysterious before began to become clear when applied to Jesus.

Ask God to help you see Jesus in other people. Receive Jesus in Communion as often as you can (at least once a week). Trust him and expect to see Jesus both in the people around you and in the changes that come into your life. The more you look for Jesus, the easier it is to see him.

El Evangelio de hoy presenta algunas sorpresas para los discípulos que iban a Emaús. La primera es que Lucas nos dice que Jesús se les apareció, "pero los ojos de los dos discípulos estaban velados y no lo reconocieron" (Lucas 24,16). No creo que Jesús llevara lentes como Clark Kent. Lo más probable es que su falta de fe les impidiera reconocerlo. Sabían que Jesús había muerto, así que este hombre de aspecto familiar no podía ser él. Solo habían oído que el cuerpo de Jesús no estaba en la tumba. Lucas dice que estaban discutiendo, como si no pudieran decidir qué creer.

Esto nos lleva al segundo punto. No, no les sorprendió que el "desconocido" pudiera citar las Escrituras. La mayoría de los hombres judíos conocían las Escrituras, pero les asombró la forma en que Jesús las explicaba. Ni siquiera los discípulos habían pensado que predijeran el sufrimiento y la muerte de Jesús. Sin embargo, parecían comprender la verdad de lo que Jesús decía. Sus corazones ardían con el fuego del Espíritu Santo, que les ayudó a comprender el nuevo significado de las Escrituras. Su historia también puede ayudarnos a nosotros.

Si a veces te resulta difícil ver a Jesús en las personas o en los acontecimientos de tu vida, quizás necesites fortalecer tu fe. Una manera de hacerlo es hablarlo con otros. Los dos discípulos fortalecieron su fe al hablar de lo que habían oído. Mejor aún, debate con alguien que no cree (recuerda hacerlo de forma amigable). Puede que no lo convenzas de cambiar de opinión, pero tu fe crecerá a medida que aprendas a expresarla. Otra manera de fortalecer tu fe es leer y orar con las Escrituras. Pregúntale a Dios qué intenta decirte a través de ellas. Los discípulos camino a Emaús comenzaron a ver cómo Jesús cumplía las promesas que allí se encontraban. Pasajes que antes les resultaban misteriosos comenzaron a aclararse al aplicarlos a Jesús.

Pídele a Dios que te ayude a ver a Jesús en otras personas. Recibe a Jesús en la Comunión tan a menudo como puedas (al menos una vez por semana). Confía en él y espera ver a Jesús tanto en las personas que te rodean como en los cambios que ocurren en tu vida. Cuanto más busques a Jesús, más fácil te será verlo.
