Corpus Christi

For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the death of the Lord until he comes. ~ 1 Corinthians 11:26

Por eso, cada vez que ustedes comen de este pan y beben de este cáliz, proclaman la muerte del Señor, hasta que vuelva.
~ 1 Corintios 11, 26

The Gospel for this feast reminds me of what my aunt used to tell us when we would visit her and share a meal. She always fixed more than enough for everyone (even with her three kids and my parents' eight kids); her favorite saying was, "If you don't get enough to eat, it's your own fault." Perhaps Jesus would say the same as he feeds us with his Body and Blood.

Some say that the multiplication of loaves was not done by breaking the laws of physics. Instead, they say that Jesus, when he began to share the little bread that he had, touched the hearts of all those who had brought food with them. They followed his example by sharing their food also—so much that there were twelve baskets left over. While I don't doubt that Jesus could have multiplied the loaves he had, it reminds me of the temptation in the desert, when the devil told him to make bread out of rocks. If he rejected that temptation, why would he do almost the same thing now?

No, Jesus came to change people's hearts, to show them God's love and how to love one another. The miracle of the loaves shows us that Jesus can feed millions with his Body and Blood in the Eucharist. The miracle of changing bread and wine into his Body and Blood is not just so we can feel good about having Jesus so near to us. It is meant to strengthen us to do our best as his disciples. As food and drink help us to keep on working, his Body and Blood help us to keep on loving. Look around as the Communion procession goes by and think about how many are united with Jesus. Let the broken bread and poured-out wine remind you of how Jesus gave himself up to death on the cross.

When the disciples told Jesus about the hungry crowd, he told them, "Give them some food yourselves" (Luke 9:13). And one day they would. When they celebrated the Eucharist after Jesus' resurrection, they gave that spiritual food to the new followers of Christ. We continue that today. With Jesus' strength we can teach all people about the Father's love for them and how they can love each other.

El Evangelio de esta fiesta me recuerda lo que mi tía nos decía cuando la visitábamos y compartíamos una comida. Siempre preparaba más que suficiente para todos (incluso para sus tres hijos y los ocho hijos de mis padres); su dicho favorito era: "Si no comes lo suficiente, es tu propia culpa". Tal vez Jesús diría lo mismo mientras nos alimenta con su Cuerpo y Sangre.

Jesús vino a cambiar los corazones de las personas, a mostrarles el amor de Dios y cómo amarnos unos a otros. El milagro de la multiplicación de los panes nos muestra que Jesús puede alimentar a millones con su Cuerpo y Sangre en la Eucaristía. El milagro de convertir el pan y el vino en su Cuerpo y Sangre no es solo para que podamos sentirnos bien por tener a Jesús tan cerca de nosotros. Tiene como objetivo fortalecernos para hacer lo mejor que podamos como sus discípulos. Así como la comida y la bebida nos ayudan a seguir trabajando, su Cuerpo y Sangre nos ayudan a seguir amando. Mira a la procesión de la Comunión mientras pasa al costado tuyo y piensa en cuántos están unidos a Jesús. Que el pan partido y el vino derramado te recuerden cómo Jesús se entregó a la muerte en la cruz.

Cuando los discípulos le hablaron a Jesús sobre la multitud hambrienta, les dijo: "Denles ustedes de comer" (Lucas 9,13). Y un día lo harían. Cuando celebraron la Eucaristía después de la resurrección de Jesús, dieron ese alimento espiritual a los nuevos seguidores de Cristo. Continuamos haciéndolo hoy. Con la fuerza de Jesús podemos enseñar a todas las personas sobre el amor que el Padre les tiene y cómo pueden amarse los unos a los otros.

The Most Sacred Heart of Jesus

June 27, 2025

O most holy heart of Jesus, fountain of every blessing, I adore you, I love you, and with lively sorrow for my sins, I offer you this poor heart of mine. Make me humble, patient, pure and wholly obedient to your will. Grant, good Jesus, that I may live in you and for your.

Amen

MEMORIAL OF

The Immaculate Heart of the Blessed Virgin Mary

Devotion to the Heart of Mary, originally promoted by St John Eudes in the 17th Century, became popular after the apparitions at Fatima. It was during the Second World War that Pope Pius XII placed the world under Mary's protection, by consecrating it to her Immaculate Heart. In 1944, he decreed that the whole Church should celebrate this feast. It is observed on the Saturday following the Solemnity of the Sacred Heart of Jesus.
