If you get pulled over for speeding, you might have several excuses to use, but did you ever say that you didn't know you had to obey the speed limit? As the saying goes, ignorance of the law is no excuse. That is what Moses is telling the people in the first reading. The laws of God are not difficult to understand. Anyone with a conscience should be able to live with them.

By the time of Jesus, the scribes and Pharisees had added many more laws. The scholar who questioned Jesus about eternal life knew what was important: loving God with all your being and loving your neighbor as yourself. If he had stopped there, he would have been all right. But by asking "Who is my neighbor?" he implied that there are limits to love. That's why Jesus used the parable of the good Samaritan to show that love is as simple as helping someone in need. Even today, we find people making excuses for not doing what God asks of us. We want someone else to interpret it for us, hoping they will find a loophole we can use to ignore God's commands. We judge people who need help, saying they choose to be poor or homeless. We say that between work and family obligations, we have no time to give to the community. We sign our kids up for so many sports that we don't even go to church on Sundays. We always have time to watch our favorite TV shows, but there's never enough time for daily prayers.

Before you start beating yourself up with guilt, remember that God expects us to take care of our families, to spend time with our children, and even to take time to rest and relax. If we are willing to look at our lives and bring them to God, asking for guidance, we are making the first steps to keep God's law of love. Even Jesus, whom Paul describes in the second reading as the image of God and source of all creation, had to die on the cross to show God's love to the world. Jesus understands the difficult choices we make. Ask for his help and you shall receive.

Si te detienen por exceso de velocidad, es posible que tengas varias excusas, pero ¿alguna vez dijiste que no sabías que tenías que respetar el límite de velocidad? Como dice el refrán, la ignorancia de la ley no es excusa. Eso es lo que Moisés le dice al pueblo en la primera lectura. Las leyes de Dios no son difíciles de entender. Cualquiera con conciencia debería poder vivirlas.

En la época de Jesús, los escribas y fariseos habían añadido muchas más leyes. El erudito que le preguntó a Jesús sobre la vida eterna sabía lo que era importante: amar a Dios con todo tu ser y amar al prójimo como a ti mismo. Si se hubiera detenido allí, habría estado bien. Pero al preguntar "¿Y quién es mi prójimo?", dio a entender que el amor tiene límites. Por eso Jesús utilizó la parábola del buen samaritano para mostrar que el amor es tan simple como ayudar a una persona necesitada.

Incluso hoy, encontramos personas que ponen excusas para no hacer lo que Dios nos pide. Queremos que alguien más lo interprete por nosotros, con la esperanza de que encuentre una escapatoria que podamos usar para ignorar los mandatos de Dios. Juzgamos a las personas que necesitan ayuda, diciendo que eligen ser pobres o sin hogar. Decimos que entre el trabajo y las obligaciones familiares, no tenemos tiempo para dar a la comunidad. Inscribimos a nuestros hijos en tantos deportes que ni siquiera vamos a la iglesia los domingos. Siempre tenemos tiempo para ver nuestros programas de televisión favoritos, pero nunca hay tiempo suficiente para las oraciones diarias.

Antes de comenzar a castigarte con la culpa, recuerda que Dios espera que cuidemos a nuestras familias, que pasemos tiempo con nuestros hijos e incluso que nos tomemos tiempo para descansar y relajarnos. Si estamos dispuestos a mirar nuestras vidas y llevarlas a Dios, pidiendo guía, estamos dando los primeros pasos para cumplir la ley de amor de Dios. Incluso Jesús, a quien Pablo describe en la segunda lectura como la imagen de Dios y fuente de toda la creación, tuvo que morir en la cruz para mostrar el amor de Dios al mundo. Jesús entiende las decisiones difíciles que tomamos. Pide su ayuda y la recibirás.
