The Gospel for this Sunday can sometimes give the impression that Jesus favored Mary over Martha. But if they had both sat down to listen, there would have been no dinner to serve to Jesus. He wasn't just saying, "Sit down and listen." He meant that just as Mary was content to listen to him, so Martha could have been content to prepare the meal for him. Instead of thinking of her work as a gift to Jesus, she was more concerned with why Mary was not helping her. Remember the first reading, in which Abraham insisted on serving the visitors, whom he came to recognize as the Lord and two angels. He was rewarded with the assurance that he would soon have a son.

So simple acts of hospitality can also be how people can welcome the Lord into their homes. Paul reminds us in the second reading that Christ is in us; the church is the body of Christ. When we welcome someone into our homes as a visitor, or into our lives as a friend, we are also welcoming Christ. When we get to know someone better, we are also getting to know Christ. When we are respectful to people who help us, like the maintenance staff, the mail carrier, the waiter, we are also showing respect for the Lord. And what about that "better part" that Mary had chosen? Are we sometimes like Martha, with too many things on our minds to be aware of the Lord? Sometimes we can't avoid the distractions that are part of life. But if we keep the Lord on our minds, we may be able to see which are distractions to be put aside and which are opportunities to serve the Lord in a different way. Sometimes kids interrupt when we're fixing dinner—maybe they need to be taught how to take care of things by themselves, or maybe they just need a few moments of attention. We can certainly ask the Lord to help us handle distractions. And as we spend more time with the Lord in prayer, we begin to experience God's peace, which gives us the ability to choose the better part.

El Evangelio de este domingo a veces puede dar la impresión de que Jesús favoreció a María sobre Marta. Pero si ambos se hubieran sentado a escuchar, no habría habido cena para servirle a Jesús. Él no estaba diciendo simplemente: "Siéntate y escucha". Quizás quería decir que, así como María se contentaba con escucharlo, Marta podría haberse contentado con prepararle la comida. En lugar de pensar en su trabajo como un regalo para Jesús, estaba más preocupada por el motivo por el cual María no la ayudaba. Recuerde la primera lectura, en la que Abraham insistió en servir a los visitantes, a quienes llegó a reconocer como el Señor y dos ángeles. Fue recompensado con la seguridad de que pronto tendría un hijo.

Así que los actos sencillos de hospitalidad también pueden ser la forma en que las personas pueden dar la bienvenida al Señor en sus hogares. Pablo nos recuerda en la segunda lectura que Cristo está en nosotros; la Iglesia es el cuerpo de Cristo. Cuando damos la bienvenida a alguien en nuestros hogares como visitante, o en nuestras vidas como amigo, también estamos dando la bienvenida a Cristo. Cuando conocemos mejor a alguien, también conocemos a Cristo. Cuando somos respetuosos con las personas que nos ayudan, como el personal de mantenimiento, el cartero, el mesero, también mostramos respeto por el Señor.

¿Y qué pasa con esa "mejor parte" que María había elegido? ¿Somos a veces como Marta, con demasiadas cosas en la mente como para estar atentos al Señor? A veces no podemos evitar las distracciones que son parte de la vida. Pero si mantenemos al Señor en mente, podemos ser capaces de ver cuáles son las distracciones que debemos dejar de lado y cuáles son oportunidades para servir al Señor de una manera diferente. A veces los niños nos interrumpen cuando estamos preparando la cena; tal vez necesiten que se les enseñe a encargarse de las cosas por sí mismos, o tal vez solo necesiten unos momentos de atención. Sin duda podemos pedirle al Señor que nos ayude a manejar las distracciones. Y a medida que pasamos más tiempo con el Señor en la oración, comenzamos a experimentar la paz de Dios, que nos da la capacidad de elegir la mejor parte.
