19th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Gird your loins and light your lamps and be like servants who await their master's return from a wedding, ready to open immediately when he comes and knocks." ~ Luke 12:35-36

19º Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

"Estén listos, con la túnica puesta y las lámparas encendidas. Sean semejantes a los criados que están esperando a que su señor regrese de la boda, para abrirle en cuanto llegue y toque." ~ Lucas 12, 35-36

The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary

August 10, 2025

In today's Gospel Jesus talks about being prepared, using the parable of the servants waiting for their master's return from a wedding. Parables usually have a surprise twist and this one is no exception. Jesus pictures the master coming back at a late hour and finding the servants ready for him. The master is so pleased that he begins to wait on the servants—he serves them a meal. (I can almost hear the disciples saying, “No way!”)

Peter is a man who is not afraid to speak up or ask a question. That may be one of the reasons Jesus made him the head of the apostles. Perhaps Peter was thinking, “Surely we will be prepared when Jesus comes again. He must be talking about the rest of the people.” When he asks Jesus whom the parable is meant for, Jesus ignores him! At least it seems that way at first. Jesus expands on the theme of readiness by describing the servant who took advantage of the master's absence—he will be punished severely. To answer Peter's question, Jesus warns that the servant who knew his duties would be punished more than one who was ignorant of those expectations. Peter and the disciples should have seen themselves as the servants who knew what was expected.

That warning is one for us to hear also. We may look down on non-Christians or wonder if they will get to heaven. But the Lord doesn't expect as much from those who don't know God. Instead of judging them, we would be better off looking at ourselves. Am I serious about my faith, serious enough to show it in my actions? Has my good example ever brought a non-believer to the Church? If I can see Jesus in someone who doesn't know the Lord, the respect I show that person could draw them to believe.

There are examples of this even in your own parish. If you have been in the parish for many years, you could be expected to notice a newcomer more readily. How do you welcome them? Do you get so comfortable with your friends that you don't think about reaching out to a visitor? I think Jesus would expect those of us who feel at home in our church to make an effort to bring new members into our circle. “So how much does Jesus expect of me?” The answer could be in how well you know Jesus.

En el Evangelio de hoy, Jesús habla de estar preparados, utilizando la parábola de los criados que esperaban el regreso de su señor de una boda. Las parábolas suelen tener un giro inesperado, y esta tiene uno también. Jesús describe al señor regresando tarde y encontrando a los criados listos. El señor está tan contento que se pone a atenderlos a ellos y les sirve una comida. (Casi puedo oír a los discípulos decir: “¡No puede ser!”).

Pedro es un hombre que no teme hablar ni hacer preguntas. Puede ser que esa sea una de las razones por las que Jesús lo nombró jefe de los apóstoles. Quizás Pedro pensaba: “Seguramente estaremos preparados cuando Jesús regrese. Debe estar hablando del resto de la gente”. Cuando le pregunta a Jesús a quién va dirigida la parábola, ¡Jesús lo ignora! Por lo menos así parece al principio. Jesús desarrolla el tema de la preparación al describir al siervo que se aprovechó de la ausencia de su señor: será castigado severamente. Para responder a la pregunta de Pedro, Jesús advierte que el criado que conocía sus deberes sería más castigado que uno que no conociera las expectativas. Pedro y los discípulos deberían haberse visto a sí mismos como los criados que sabían lo que se esperaba de ellos.

Esa advertencia también nos corresponde a nosotros. Podemos menospreciar a los no cristianos o preguntarnos si llegarán al cielo. Pero el Señor no espera tanto de quienes no conocen a Dios. En lugar de juzgarlos, sería mejor que nos examináramos a nosotros mismos. ¿Soy serio en mi fe, lo suficientemente serio como para demostrarlo con mis acciones? ¿Alguna vez mi buen ejemplo ha atraído a un no creyente a la Iglesia? Si puedo ver a Jesús en alguien que no conoce al Señor, el respeto que le demuestro podría atraerlo a creer.

Hay ejemplos de esto incluso en tu propia parroquia. Si llevas muchos años en la parroquia, podrían esperar de ti que te des cuenta más fácilmente cuando llega alguien nuevo. ¿Cómo le das la bienvenida? ¿Te sientes tan cómodo con tus amigos que ni siquiera piensas en acercarte a una visita? Creo que Jesús esperaría que quienes nos sentimos a gusto en nuestras parroquias nos esforzáramos por traer a nuevos miembros dentro de nuestro círculo. “Así que ¿cuánto espera Jesús de mí?” Podrías encontrar la respuesta en cuánto conoces a Jesús.
