Prophets have been described as being on fire with God's message. Today, that fire in Jeremiah has to keep burning in the bottom of a muddy cistern. The rulers of his own people (including Judah's king, Zedekiah) have placed him in there for speaking an unpopular, if truthful, message to them. His own leave him there, mired in the mud, to starve and die. It takes a foreigner, an outsider, to convince Judah's king that Jeremiah ought to be rescued, his life spared to continue on as God's prophet. As so often happens in the lives of the prophets, the help and saving power of God are shown through unexpected people in unexpected ways. We can often find ourselves mired in mud of one sort or another. Do we truly have the fire of God's message in us, so that we can look for our rescue from places we might not expect?

SPIRIT FIRE IN THE SUMMER

A generation or two ago, these summer Sundays in Ordinary Time would have been known as Sundays "of Pentecost." That naming convention helped recall that the Spirit's Pentecost fire was carrying us through all the Sundays until the end of the liturgical year. Though we may no longer use that name for these Sundays, the underlying reality is the same. The fire that Jesus speaks about today is the blaze of the Spirit. The fire he spoke about when he told his followers they were light for the world was the flame of the Spirit lighting the lamp of discipleship. It takes courageous disciples to allow the blazing fire of which Jesus speaks into their lives, to allow its light, warmth, and even cleansing to work in them and through them. Though we may not want to think about the heat of the Spirit's fire on a summer Sunday, that Spirit is always with us, burning within.

The Queenship of the Blessed Virgin Mary

17 de agosto de 2025

Se ha descrito a los profetas como apasionados por el mensaje de Dios. Hoy, ese fuego en Jeremías debe seguir ardiendo en el fondo de una cisterna fangosa. Los gobernantes de su propio pueblo (incluido el rey de Judá, Sedequías) lo han encerrado allí por comunicarles un mensaje impopular, aunque veraz. Los suyos lo abandonan allí, sumido en el lodo, para que muerda de hambre. Se necesita un extranjero, un forastero, para convencer al rey de Judá de que Jeremías debe ser rescatado, que se le perdone la vida para que continúe como profeta de Dios. Como suele ocurrir en la vida de los profetas, la ayuda y el poder salvador de Dios se manifiestan a través de personas inesperadas de maneras inesperadas. A menudo nos encontramos sumidos en el lodo de una forma u otra. ¿Realmente tenemos el fuego del mensaje de Dios en nosotros, para que podamos buscar nuestro rescate en lugares inesperados?

EL FUEGO DEL ESPÍRITU EN EL VERANO

Hace una o dos generaciones, estos domingos de verano del Tiempo Ordinario se habrían conocido como Domingos de Pentecostés. Esta denominación nos recordaba que el fuego de Pentecostés del Espíritu nos acompañaba a lo largo de todos los domingos hasta el final del año litúrgico. Aunque ya no usemos ese nombre para estos domingos, la realidad subyacente es la misma. El fuego del que habla Jesús hoy es el resplandor del Espíritu. El fuego del que habló cuando les dijo a sus seguidores que eran luz para el mundo era la llama del Espíritu que encendía la lámpara del discipulado. Se necesitan discípulos valientes para permitir que el fuego ardiente del que habla Jesús entre en sus vidas, para permitir que su luz, su calor e incluso su purificación obre en ellos y a través de ellos. Aunque no queramos pensar en el calor del fuego del Espíritu en un domingo de verano, ese Espíritu siempre está con nosotros, ardiendo en nuestro interior.
