Why would invited guests refuse to come to a wedding? Free food and drink, music and dancing—what's not to like? By this time, Jesus knew that many of the Jewish leaders would not accept the invitation to follow him. As we know, after the Resurrection the disciples began to spread the good news not only to other Jews, but to anyone who would listen.

One reason the leaders in Israel did not accept Jesus was his association with sinners. They did not understand that God calls sinners to repent and be forgiven. Ordinary people, who knew they were sinners, were attracted by the offer of forgiveness. Many of them repented and came to be baptized. As the parable says, they filled the banquet hall.

So what about the man in the parable who came in street clothes? The wedding garment was a symbol of the baptismal gown, the sign of new life in Christ. So this man symbolizes those who "come to the feast" without repenting of their sins.

We can be like that man sometimes. We come to church, arguing with our spouse on the way. We bring our prejudices, lies, anger, and selfishness—with no intention of doing anything about them. We come with the attitude that says, "I'm here, aren't I? That should be good enough." But it's not. By dying for our sins, Jesus calls us to come back to God. So repentance is not just a change of clothing, it is a change of heart. It is our ticket to the banquet, our way of saying, "I know I don't deserve this, but thanks for letting me share the feast."

¿Por qué los invitados se negarían a asistir a una boda? Comida y bebida gratis, música y baile: ¿cómo no les va a gustar? En ese momento, Jesús sabía que muchos de los líderes judíos no aceptarían la invitación de seguirlo. Como sabemos, después de la Resurrección, los discípulos comenzaron a difundir la buena nueva no solo a otros judíos, sino a cualquiera que quisiera escuchar.

Una de las razones por las que los líderes de Israel no aceptaron a Jesús fue su asociación con los pecadores. No entendieron que Dios llama a los pecadores a arrepentirse y ser perdonados. La gente común, que sabía que era pecadora, se sintió atraída por la oferta del perdón. Muchos de ellos se arrepintieron y vinieron a ser bautizados. Como dice la parábola, llenaron el salón del banquete.

Entonces, ¿qué pasa con el hombre de la parábola que vino vestido de ropa común? El vestido de boda era un símbolo de la túnica bautismal, el signo de la vida nueva en Cristo. Entonces este hombre simboliza a aquellos que "vienen a la fiesta" sin arrepentirse de sus pecados.

A veces podemos ser como ese hombre. Llegamos a la iglesia, discutiendo con nuestro esposo en el camino. Traemos nuestros prejuicios, mentiras, ira y egoísmo, sin intenciones de hacer nada al respecto. Venimos con la actitud que dice: "Estoy aquí, ¿no? Eso debe ser suficiente." Pero no lo es. Al morir por nuestros pecados, Jesús nos llama a volver a Dios. Así que el arrepentimiento no es solo un cambio de ropa, es un cambio de corazón. Es nuestra entrada al banquete, nuestra forma de decir: "Entiendo que no merezco esto, pero gracias por dejarme compartir la fiesta".
