In Advent, we celebrate our hope that the Lord might come more fully into our lives. The first reading from Isaiah voices the hope of sinners for a redeemer. Unlike Isaiah, we know that God has come to bring us back, when the Father sent his Son, Jesus, to save us. Our faith in Jesus leads us to a new way of looking at the world. We can see what God is doing as well as remembering what God has done.

Like the gatekeepers in Jesus' Gospel parable, we need to keep our eyes open for him. When we only look out for ourselves, we may miss the signs of God's presence around us. Instead of looking at the difficulties of life as obstacles, we can watch for them as opportunities to stretch our faith, to rely on God, or to show God's love to a friend.

The Corinthians were also watching for the Lord to come. They were thinking of Jesus as coming in glory. Though we don't see the full glory of the Lord, part of that glory is his presence in the sacraments. In them we celebrate not just the coming of the Lord, but his working in the world. He shares his life with us in baptism, gives us his Spirit in confirmation and himself in the Eucharist, heals us in reconciliation and the anointing of the sick, and calls us to make him present to others in holy orders and matrimony. You could almost say his second coming is taking place now. Watch for it.

En Adviento celebramos la esperanza que tenemos de que el Señor entre más plenamente en nuestras vidas. La primera lectura de Isaías expresa la esperanza que los pecadores tienen para un redentor. A diferencia de Isaías, nosotros sí sabemos que Dios vino a volvernos a Él cuando el Padre envió a su Hijo Jesús para salvarnos. Nuestra fe en Jesús nos lleva a una nueva forma de mirar al mundo. Podemos ver lo que Dios está haciendo y también recordar lo que Dios ha hecho.

Al igual que los porteros de la breve parábola de Jesús, debemos mantener los ojos abiertos para verlo. Cuando sólo nos preocupamos por nosotros mismos, es posible que no veamos las señales de la presencia de Dios a nuestro alrededor. En lugar de ver las dificultades de la vida como obstáculos, podemos buscarlas como oportunidades para ampliar nuestra fe, confiar en Dios o mostrar el amor de Dios a un amigo.

Los corintios también esperaban la venida del Señor. Pensaban que Jesús venía en su gloria. Aunque no vemos la gloria completa del Señor, parte de esa gloria es su presencia en los sacramentos. En ellos celebramos no sólo la venida del Señor, sino sus obras en el mundo. Comparte su vida con nosotros en el bautismo, nos da su Espíritu en la confirmación y a sí mismo en la Eucaristía, nos sana en la reconciliación y la unción de los enfermos y nos llama a hacerlo presente a los demás en las sagradas órdenes y en el matrimonio. Se podría decir que su segunda venida está ocurriendo ahora. Esté atento a ello.

SAINT ANDREW, APOSTLE (c. 5-65)
November 30

As one of the disciples blessed to be called an Apostle, according to the Gospel of John, St. Andrew was the first of the Twelve to be led to Christ. One day, John the Baptist was with two of his disciples "and as he watched Jesus walk by, he said, 'Behold, the Lamb of God.' The two disciples heard what he said and followed Jesus… Andrew, the brother of Simon Peter, was one of the two who heard John and followed Jesus. (John 1:36-37, 40). Andrew began following Jesus after a simple indication from John the Baptist, without ever hearing a word come out of Jesus' mouth. What incredible faith! In the same light, we could also consider him the very first evangelist, since after meeting Jesus and finding out where he was staying, he immediately went to find his brother Peter and bring him to the Lord as well. All he had to say was, "We have found the Messiah" (John 1:41). And that is how his mission began, following the Messiah and learning all he could from Him so as to continue leading others to Him. After Christ's death and resurrection, Tradition holds that Andrew preached in modern day Greece and Turkey. He was crucified at Patras on an X-shaped cross because he did not feel worthy to die in the same manner as Our Lord. St. Andrew, intercede for us, that we too may become disciples and evangelists for Christ.
