THE PILGRIMAGE TO ST. FRANCIS OF ASSISI

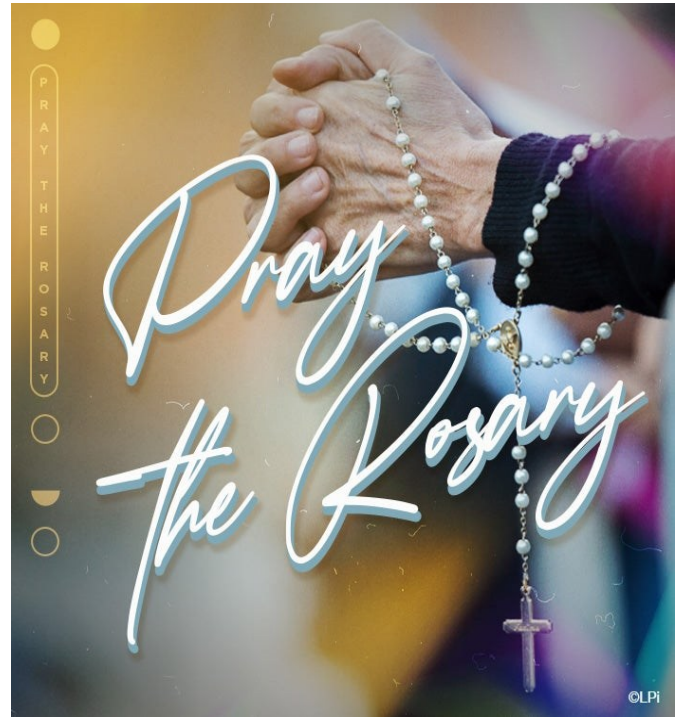

in Rocky Mount was a blessed and holy time spent with fellow parishioners. We experienced the warm hospitality of several of their parishioners, who greeted us with coffee and sweets. Then having showed us around their beautiful and lovely parish with a talk about their history, we had the pleasure of walking around and enjoying the art and statues that were present there.

Fr. Kyle then had adoration and Mass for all the pilgrims with a lovely homily on how appropriate it was to be there in this Jubilee Year and on the Feast day of Capuchin Franciscan Padre Pio. Another great saint in the Franciscan family.

Afterward, we headed downstairs to the Social Hall where we enjoyed our bagged lunches and each others company.

Shortly, we gathered our belongings and headed for home giving thanks to God for such a wonderful day.

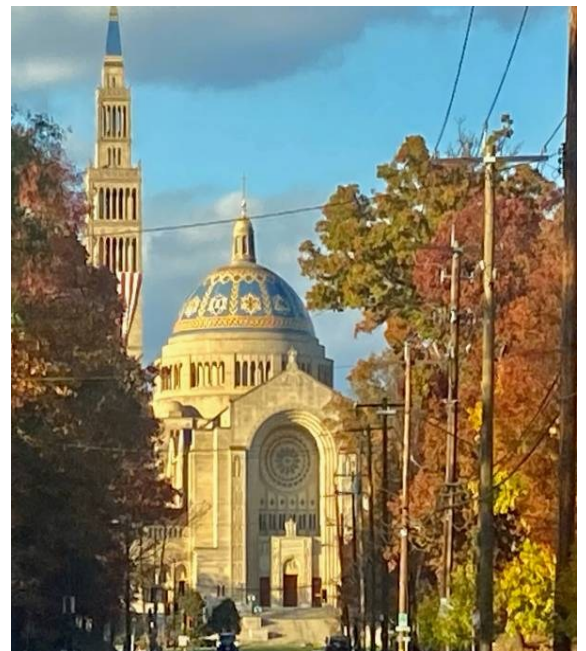

Please see the picture of the group inside the Commons area by the statue of St. Francis.

OCTOBER IS THE MONTH OF THE ROSARY
Pray the rosary for peace in the world and in our families.
