A MESSAGE FROM

Pastor Bob

One of the ways that our church fulfills the mission of Jesus is through our Student Ministry. We are convinced that God has strategically placed us in this city to reach the next generation with the gospel of Jesus Christ. Shane Pruitt cites a study that 77% of all Christians are saved before the age of 18. That is why we invest resources, personnel, and prayer in our Student Ministry.

One of the most effective strategies we use is “Oneighty Weekend.” Oneighty Weekend is our Disciple-Now. This year it is the weekend of February 13-15th. I hope that you will make sure your student is a part of this impactful weekend. Every year, we see students saved, lives changed, and young men and women called to missions and ministry. Thank you for investing in the next generation of students and leaders.

I also want to ask you to pray for the leadership of our Student Ministry. Steven Patterson is doing a great job as our Student Pastor. Sam Powers is our outstanding Junior High Pastor. They, along with our satellite campus Student Leadership, are surrounded by a group of interns and volunteers who love students and love Jesus. Please pray for God’s great blessing on Oneighty Weekend and beyond that, as we reach the next generation for Christ.

Bob McCartney
Senior Pastor

Oneighty Weekend

Oneighty Weekend is February 13-15 and is a D-Now style weekend for grades 6th-12th where students stay in host homes and gather together for worship, biblical teaching, crazy amounts of FUN. Our desire is that students would encounter Jesus in a whole new way and begin living on mission in their schools, sports teams, and in our community. During this event we combine all campus’ and resources to pull of an EPIC weekend that students won’t want to miss. It’s like summer camp in February! This year, our High School students will be hosted in our church members’ homes like previous years, and all our Middle School students will be hosted at Camp Chaparral. We are doing this to ensure we have enough Host Homes for the incredible growth our student ministry has experienced! The cost is $99 per student - Register at www.oneightystudents.com.
