

Attire: Fun Formal (Semi-Formal to Formal)

Step into the Jazz Age at the newly renovated Indiana Roof Ballroom (1927 vibes)! Think glitz, glamour, the Charleston, and It's a Wonderful Life or a little bit o' Gatsby style. Our lively dances involve bouncing, twirling, bending, leaping, skipping, and kicking, so choose outfits that allow free movement. Dressing in theme is fun, but optional—be yourself, and keep it classy, not costum-ey.

Ladies*Wear:

- Semi-formal (knee-length) to formal (floor-length) gowns or dresses. To ensure a comfortable and elegant experience for all, we kindly ask that the length extend to past mid-thigh.
- Flapper-inspired dresses with fringe, sequins, or beads.
- Mary's prom from It's a Wonderful Life- inspired dress.
- Elegant accessories like headbands, pearls, or long gloves.
- Secure strapless or V-neck gowns (no lower than bra line). We suggest sewing panels in V-neck gowns.
- Non-see-through midriff coverage; two-piece dresses must overlap by 3 inches. No cut-outs below the waist.
- Dance-friendly shoes (low heels, Mary Janes, ballet slippers, or sparkly sneakers). If you wear high heels for the Red Carpet look, consider bringing a second pair to dance in.
- Bike shorts (4" inseam) under above-knee dresses (REQUIRED)

Not Allowed:

- Trains, slits above low-thigh, plunging necklines, or low-back cutouts.
- See-through mesh violating rules or short cocktail dresses. Clingy mermaid dresses are allowed, but NOT suggested. They will NOT be comfortable for dancing.
- Trousers/pantsuits (except formal sari with approval).
- Body piercings (except earrings or small nose stud).

Gentlemen*Wear:

- Suits, dress slacks with suspenders, bow ties, or vests. Jackets optional.
- Fedoras, flat caps, or slicked-back hair.
- Collared shirts and ties REQUIRED.
- Dress shoes, clean dress boots, or NEW, CLEAN tennis shoes.
- Formal military uniform, white dinner jacket, or dress kilt (with shorts).

Not Allowed:

- T-shirts, jeans, flip-flops, sandals, or dirty shoes.
- Costumes or skirts (except dress kilt, as mentioned above).
- Body piercings (except small stud earring).

Expectations

- Wristbands: Wear color-coded wristbands at all times. No wristband, no entry. Leaving unchaperoned means no re-entry.
- Dancing: No provocative moves, groping, or body-to-body dancing. Keep it wholesome, and allow room for the Holy Spirit.
- Behavior: Show respect, follow chaperone instructions, and avoid PDA beyond hand-holding. No bullying, foul language, food, drink, alcohol, smoking, or vaping.
- Entry: Visible intoxication denies entry (no refunds).
