COUNTY HAS Colorful history

Adair County, home of the Cherokees, is one of the state's smallest counties. It is only 584 square miles in area and contains 100 square miles of low mountains known as the Ozark foothills.

The county was carved from two districts of the old Cherokee Nation—Flint and Goingsnake Districts.

Many American Indian tribes favored this area because of its superior hunting and fishing. The western Cherokees, however, had become a predominant tribe in the area by 1808. These were Indians who had left voluntarily the main tribe and their homes in Georgia, Tennessee, and North Carolina to migrate west. More than 7,000 already had settled in Arkansas between the Arkansas and White Rivers before their title to the land was confirmed by the United States by the treaty of 1817.

A new treaty 11 years later gave them in exchange for their homes in Arkansas a grant of seven million acres, part of which extended west to the 100th meridian.

Many of the Western Cherokees that were forced to move into the Indian Territory elected to settle just across the border in the rugged, mountainous area in which they had hunted and fished, and which became the last Cherokee stronghold.

The Western Cherokees were joined by the Eastern Cherokees, who were forced to leave their homes in Georgia, Tennessee, and North Carolina and were driven over the Trail of Tears to this area, in about 1838.

In 1839 this area, as part of the Flint and Goingsnake Districts, belonged to the old Cherokee Nation. In 1907 when the Indian Territory was admitted to the Union as the State of Oklahoma, this area was included as a county and named Adair in honor of a prominent Cherokee jurist and educator.

A historian notes that only the most daring white people, mainly those of Irish descent, settled in the area ruled by the Cherokees. But after the construction of the Kansas City Southern Railroad, many other white families moved in from Arkansas, Missouri, Tennessee, and Georgia.

TO OUR FRIENDS

You're invited to Stilwell

It is a real privilege for me, on behalf of the Stilwell Kiwanis Club, to welcome you to Green Country — to Stilwell, the Strawberry Capitol of the World, for the 23rd annual Strawberry Festival.

Those of us who have chosen this area as our homes know that no more beautiful country, nor friendlier people can ever be found than in this land of strawberries and dogwood blossoms in the Spring and the golden green foliage in the Fall.

We hope that you enjoy every minute of your visit here in the foothills of the Ozarks, in the land of lakes and rivers.

Perhaps you will linger a while enjoying the scenic beauty and hospitality of our people.

It may be that you, too, will want to live with us in this historic and enchanting land of Cherokee Country.

CORONATION MAY 9

Festival Queen for 1970

Miss Margaret Couch, who won the Strawberry Festival Queen competition over 12 other Adair County girls here in February, will begin her reign on May 9 when the crown is placed on her head.

The new queen, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Couch of Stilwell, will succeed Miss Beverly Green, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Burdge Green, Stilwell.

Miss Couch's attendants are Miss Carla Salazar, 18, of Northwest Adair County; and Miss Charlotte Wischart, 18, Westville, first and second runnersup respectively.

Miss Salazar's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Salazar; and Miss Wischart is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E.P. Wischart.

Alternates to the attendants are Miss Renee Morgan, 16, daughter of Mrs Bettye Leatherwood; and Miss Brenda Swepston, 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R.L. Swepston, all of Stilwell.

GIRLS, BANDS, FLOATS

Everybody loves a parade

The second largest—some said THE largest—Strawberry Festival crowd in history jammed Stilwell for the 1969 procession that took 52 minutes to pass a given point.

Crowd estimates ranged from 11,000 to 15,000.

The procession included hundreds of beautiful girls, 20 bands, five riding groups, a dozen or so colorful floats, a motor scooter patrol, Tuffy, a Tulsa television character, and 232 horses and ponies plus four mules.

Only a few drops of rain fell during the parade.

The Stilwell Jaycees' red and green float, which used Green Country as its theme, placed first in the senior division.

Other float winners in the senior division were the Stilwell Study Club and the Stilwell Canning Co.

Winners in the junior division, in order, were the Stilwell FFA, Adair County 4-H, and the Stilwell Boy Scouts.

Bands in the procession came from Spiro, Poteau, Sallisaw, Seneca, Mo., Westville, Vian, Muldrow, Tahlequah, Sequoyah, Quentin, Chouteau, Stigler, Adair, Savanna, Muskogee Manual and Stilwell High Schools, plus four junior high and elementary grade bands from Tahlequah.

Many weeks of planning by the Stilwell

Kiwanis Club are required each year to stage the parade which receives the cooperation of many individuals and organizations over a wide area.

MISS BEVERLY GREEN

Queen of 1969 Festival

Miss Beverly Green was crowned queen of the 1969 Strawberry Festival by W.P. Wood, Okemah, Lt. Governor, Division XXI, Texas-Oklahoma District Kiwanis International, shortly after the long parade.

The coronation took place, as it will again this year, on a specially-built platform on the Adair County Courthouse lawn.

The queen's attendants were Miss Margaret Couch (this year's queen) and Miss Sherrie Cole.

Also present for the coronation was Miss Carolyn Carson, queen of the 1968 Strawberry Festival.

Miss Green, daughter of Dr and Mrs Burdge Green of Stilwell, is a Freshman at the University of Oklahoma, Norman, this year.

FOR LARGE CROWD

Events fill day

A large, orderly crowd was in Stilwell for the 1969 Strawberry Festival, one of Eastern Oklahoma's most outstanding annual events.

The spectators, mostly from this four-state area, lined the streets for the parade, then gathered around the platform for the coronation of the queen, the musical program and the strawberry auction.

After the auction, they had only a few steps to take to get in line for the serving of free strawberries and ice cream.

SECOND SATURDAY OF MAY

The Strawberry Festival, which had its beginning in 1948, is held the second Saturday of May each year.

COUNTY IS NO. 1 PRODUCER

Strawberry is glamor crop

The luscious strawberry is not Adair County's biggest crop—but it is by far the most glamorous.

Hundreds of people, including migrant workers, students and housewives, jump in each year to help harvest the strawberry crop that in 1969 set a record yield per acre.

Only about 750 acres are in strawberries in Adair County, but this county is still Oklahoma's biggest producer.

Strawberries mean about $500,000 annually in the county's economy.

There were only 180 acres of strawberries in this county in 1939. This increased to 617 in 1949, and 719 in 1959.

The yield per acre in Adair County in 1969 was 4,800 pounds—a record for the state.

Besides setting a yield record, the 1969 crop was regarded by many local observers as the very best in quality.

A good picker can pick about 100 quart boxes in a six-hour day. He receives an average of from 8 to 10 cents a box. In good years, the grower can clear as much as 12½ cents per box.

Seventy-three pickers working in a patch last year picked 250 crates from 2½ acres for one of the best days on record anywhere in the county.

The experienced pickers use a variety of positions. Some stoop, others squat, kneel or sit. Those who sit say they remain seated and scoot from one plant to the next. Scooting on rocky soil, however, is hard on pants.

Local strawberry growers like the Blakemore variety best. Tennessee Beauty runs a poor second. Growers agree that Blakemore berries hold up better on the plant in hot weather and that they have a better taste. Besides, Blakemore plants are good for at least three years as compared with Tennessee Beauty's two.

The strawberry season is short, starting early in May and ending about June 1.

Thousands of pounds of berries are sold to the Stilwell Canning Co. to be frozen and packed. The remainder is sold at Stilwell area markets, and to retail outlets (mostly chain stores) in Tulsa, Muskogee, Fort Smith, Ark., and other cities.

Many people from miles around drive to Stilwell each May to buy berries to take home for themselves, neighbors and relatives.

Besides the commercial growers, many others have small patches in their own gardens. Commercial patches range in size from less than an acre to about 15 acres.

A new patch, after being cleared of timber and brush, is good for about three years before weeds take over. After that, it's more economical to move on to a new location rather than clear the old patch of weeds and grow new plants.

The pick-your-own plan, already being practiced at some patches, is expected to grow in popularity because of the problem of getting good pickers willing to work for 10 cents a box. People who pick their own, of course, are expected to pick all sizes of berries from each plant. They save between 8 and 10 cents a box by picking their own.

Most of the county's patches are located in the central area where so much of the bodine soil—especially adaptable to strawberries—is located. The soil is extremely rocky which the plants easily penetrate. Bodine soils are well-drained and offset the large amount of rainfall each Spring.

STRAWBERRY RECIPES

How do you like 'em?

Strawberries, with nothing else added, are delicious.

But there are plenty of other ways to make them even more delectable.

Such as with shortcake, ice cream or whipped cream.

Just about any housewife in Stilwell can give you one or more recipes involving strawberries.

Here are four of them:

Uncooked Strawberry Preserves

(Mrs. George Dickson)

- 1 quart fresh strawberries, stemmed and crushed thoroughly
- 4 cups sugar
- 1 box Sure-Jell
- $\frac{3}{4}$ cup water

Add the sugar to the crushed berries and let set. Heat water and add to it the Sure-Jell and boil for 1 minute; then add the sweetened berries and stir constantly for about three minutes over low heat. (This is to make sure the sugar dissolves completely.) Ladle into jars and let set for about 12 hours. Then store in freezer. If the preserves are to be used soon, they will keep 4 to 5 weeks in the refrigerator without being frozen.

Texas Strawberry Pie

(Mrs. William Z. Cook)

- 2 cups strawberry juice (some freeze it and keep it from season to season)
- 2 tablespoons tapioca flour (if tapioca flour is not available, substitute 1 tablespoon flour and $\frac{1}{2}$ tablespoon of tapioca.)
- 1 heaping cup sugar

Mix together and bring to a rolling boil. Fill a baked pie shell with whole strawberries. Pour the cooled thickened mixture over the berries and top with whipped cream.

Prepare shortly before serving to prevent the crust from becoming soggy.

Strawberry Pie

(Mrs. Wade Zumwalt)

- 1 quart strawberries
- 1 cup sugar
- 2 tablespoons cornstarch
- 1 pinch salt
- 1 lump butter

Heat until thickened and pour into a baked pie shell. Top with whipped cream when serving.

Strawberry Chiffon Pie

- 1 envelope unflavored gelatin
- $\frac{1}{2}$ cup sugar
- $\frac{1}{2}$ cup water
- 1 cup crushed strawberries
- 1 tablespoon lemon juice
- 1 cup cream for whipping

Combine gelatin and sugar in small sauce pan; stir in water; heat slowly, stirring constantly for five minutes or until gelatin dissolves. Pour over crushed berries and lemon juice and chill until mixture is as thick as unbeaten egg whites. While gelatin mixture chills, beat cream until stiff. When gelatin mixture is cool and partially thickened, whip it until it is fluffy, then fold in the whipped cream. Spoon into a baked pie shell and chill about 30 minutes before serving. Garnish top of each serving with a whole berry.

NOVELIST LIVES IN COUNTY

The novelist, William R. Scott, who writes under the name of Weldon Hill, lives near Watts in Adair County. His novels include "Onion Head," later made into a movie, "Rafe" and "A Man Could Get Killed that Way."

Electrical power—The City owns its own electrical distribution system, and gets its own power from the Grand River Dam Authority. Special industrial rates are offered. Present capacity of 5,000 KW could easily be enlarged. Ozarks Electric Cooperative serves the rural areas.

Communications — Independently-owned telephone company, serving 2,000 dial telephone stations in 500-square mile area, offers direct distance dialing, touch tone and mobile dial telephones. Stilwell will be among the first in Oklahoma with one-party service in initial rate area.

Industrial foundation—Stilwell Industrial

Foundation is a non-profit organization.

Indian Industrial Development Assistance—The Bureau of Indian Affairs, in cooperation with Oklahoma employee service agencies, will assist industry in recruitment of qualified applicants to meet personnel staffing requirements.

With the Arkansas River only about 30 miles away, Adair County is looking hopefully for an industrial boom when the Arkansas and Verdigris Rivers are opened to navigation in the not-too-distant future.

Industries interested in this area are invited to write R.L. (Bob) Baker, president of the Stilwell Chamber of Commerce.

AGRICULTURE

Diversified, mechanized

Apples and peaches—along with strawberries and other agricultural products—are big business in Adair County.

This county produced 175,000 bushels of apples last year, which was 10 per cent above average; and 55,000 bushels of peaches, also 10 per cent above average.

Adair County products—including strawberries, green beans, apples and peaches—are sold all over the Nation. Some are processed locally, while others are shipped fresh.

Stilwell is the home of the Stilwell Canning Co., which has nationwide distribution; the Adair County Orchard Co. which is the largest in this four-state region; and the Ideal Fruit Farm.

Corn, small grain, grain sorghums and improved grasses and legumes for hay are grown mostly as feed for livestock. Timber is regarded as an important cash income.

Several poultry processing plants also flourish in this area.

LOTS TO SEE AND DO

Come to the 'Green Country'

Come to the "Green Country" and enjoy spectacular vistas at every turn.

Valleys, tree-covered mountains, unlimited water fun.

Come, enjoy it all—the best of Oklahoma, crowded with color, a wide variety of things to see and do. Visit colorful and historic nearby communities, enjoy the mountains, sun, swim, fish, play golf, enjoy water sports. All this and more in highly agreeable climate.

Beautiful Lake Tenkiller, located just a few minutes' drive west of Stilwell, is among the major attractions in this area.

The deep blue water of Lake Tenkiller lures fishermen, skin divers and water skiers from a wide area.

Tenkiller Ferry Dam, which impounds water forming Lake Tenkiller, is located on the Illinois River near Gore. It was built by the Corps of Engineers in 1953 at a cost of $23,822,000, principally for flood control, navigation and production of hydro-electric power.

But the public is mainly interested in the extra dividends—recreation, and favorable fish and wildlife habitats.
