President's Welcome

To all attending the 64th Annual Stilwell Strawberry Festival, the Stilwell Kiwanis Club extends a 'berry' friendly welcome and we hope you have a wonderful time. The festival has such a variety of events; there is definitely something for everyone, from a 5-k run, to a colorful parade, to onstage entertainment, and this year even an antique tractor show. Wow. And that's not all folks. We have a spectacular carnival for children of all ages, all the excitement of a rodeo, and even the cultural experience of a real Native American Pow Wow.

The Stilwell Kiwanis Club actually began the Strawberry Festival as a way to promote the strawberry industry in Adair County. Held annually on the 2nd Saturday of May since 1948, the festival is the oldest continuous event of its kind in Oklahoma. Today, the festival serves to promote the mission of Kiwanis, which is to change the world one child and one community at a time. Proceeds are reinvested into the local community, especially through programs that benefit children.

Your attendance, then, enables you to play a part in doing immeasurable good to those who need it. We hope you have a memorable time and will want to come back year after year. Thank you 'berry' much for attending.

Sincerely,
Gary Jackson, President

Dear Friends:

It is my pleasure to welcome you to the 64th Annual Stilwell Strawberry Festival. The Strawberry Festival is one of the oldest festivals in Oklahoma.

This is a weekend for family and friends to renew old acquaintances and make new memories. The Strawberry festival is a great tradition that becomes bigger and better every year. Whether you come for the 5k Run, the excitement of the parade, the wonderful handmade arts and crafts, tasty food, or the free strawberries and ice cream, I hope that each of you enjoy the Strawberry Festival.

I would like to thank the Stilwell Kiwanis and all those who make the festival such an exciting and memorable event.

Sincerely,

Mary Fallin

Ever since I was a little girl, I've had a dream to become the Strawberry Festival Queen, and this year, my dream has come true! I am extremely honored and hope to be a great ambassador for the Kiwanis club, as well as my community. I also hope to be an inspiring and uplifting role model for our youth. I want to show them that every person can make a difference if they have faith and believe in themselves. I am looking forward to a fun and exciting year. Words cannot describe how ecstatic I am to serve as your 2011 Strawberry Festival Queen!

The Stilwell Kiwanis Club

Applications for Kiwanis Sponsored Events can be obtained online at www.strawberrycapital.com

The Stilwell Kiwanis Club makes numerous contributions to organizations that benefit young people in our community. Some examples are donations to the Angle Tree, Special Olympics, Relay for Life, The Chamber Easter Egg Hunt, the Burn Out program, Shop with a Cop, performing arts, Little League and other athletic organizations.

Service to our community is also important to the Stilwell Kiwanis Club. The club encourages students to Bring Up Grades with the BUGs program in area schools. Bringing cheer to the elderly at Christmas time, the members sing carols to nursing home residents and bestow on them bags of fruit while Santa wishes them a Merry Christmas. The most brilliant display of service to the community is the fourth of July fireworks display.

Dear to the hearts of many is the Strawberry Queen Pageant which gives young ladies the opportunity to learn to become more poised and self confident and maybe even win a college scholarship. But, by far the favorite service, is the annual Strawberry Festival itself. It is often overlooked that Kiwanis Club members do most of the planning and implementation resulting in the festival. Thankfully many organizations and citizens are willing to help.

When first man was created, he lived with the mate Creator gave him. When they began to quarrel, first woman left her husband. The man followed, sad and crying, but first woman kept going and never looked behind. Unetlanv, the Creator, took pity on first man and asked him if he was still angry with his wife. He said he wasn't, so Unetlanv asked him if he would like to have her back. He answered, "yes!"

Today, strawberries are often kept in traditional homes. They remind us not to argue, and are a symbol of good luck.

RE-ELECT

CHEROKEE NATION
PRINCIPAL CHIEF

Chad "Corntassel"
SMITH

Chris, Bobbie Gail, Chad, Anaweg & Kiah Smith

"We are building an economy in northeastern Oklahoma, creating jobs in our local communities and keeping our culture strong. We are maturing as a nation, and as a people. We have worked hard, accomplished much and the stakes have never been higher when it comes to the future of the Cherokee Nation and our people. As Cherokee people it is our legacy and duty to take the resources we have, nurture them and pass something worthwhile on to our children. "Di ni yo tli u na li s de ly do di," we do that so our children can help themselves. By working together the Cherokee Nation today has become a thriving economic powerhouse built upon a foundation of Cherokee values, culture and language, enabling us to leave a legacy for future generations. There's still a lot of work to do as we prepare the next generation of Cherokees. We must continue heading in a positive direction. Our Nation has come to far to turn back now. Wado!

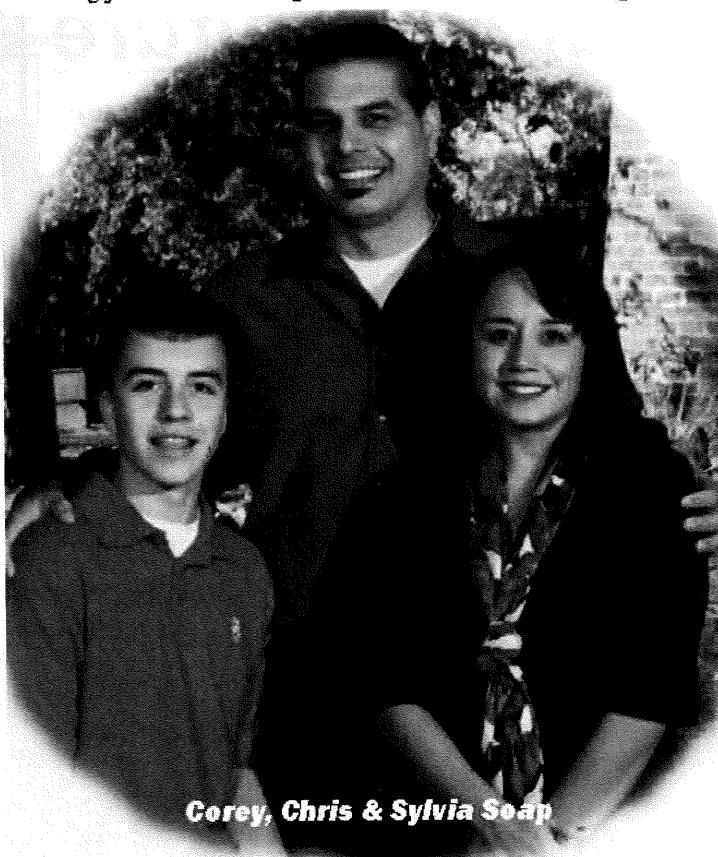

Principal Chief Chadwick "Corntassel" Smith

ELECT FOR

CHEROKEE NATION
DEPUTY CHIEF

Chris
SOAP

Growing up we were taught that it is the Cherokee way to be industrious, self-sufficient, and responsive in the service of our families, and our Cherokee communities. Cherokee people take pride in the cultural values and principles inherited from our ancestors. Today we have become leaders in open government and financial responsibility while creating thousands of new jobs and helping Cherokees to help themselves more. I think it's obvious to anyone who looks at how far the Cherokee Nation has come since Chad Smith became Chief that he's done a great job. I'm glad to have been a part of it the past few years on the Tribal Council. I look forward to working with the Cherokee people and Chief Smith as Deputy Chief to continue building on a strong foundation that began a short decade ago. Improving efficiency in deliverance of services to Cherokee citizens, identifying community economic development opportunities and dedication of more resources toward educational and career development opportunities will be my focus as we continue moving forward in the right direction. -Chris Soap

Reed's Hardware by Quentin M. and Gene Reed

Below: Ca. 1916: J.R. Reed (on left) and Lowery M. Reed (on Right), grandfather and father of Quentin M. and Welch E. (Gene) Reed.

In the early 1900s, J.R. Reed started a business located on the property where the Bank of Commerce is now located, selling according to the sign on the windows, "Dry Goods, Groceries, and Ladies' and Gents Shoes". Others in business with him were his son, Lowery M. Reed and his wife, Sarah, and B.F. (Fay) Reed and his wife, Lillus.

Mr. J.R. Reed was a successful and prosperous businessman and pioneer in the early days of Stilwell. He was president of the First National Bank of Stilwell, chartered in 1911.

About 1932 Lowery M. Reed, C.J. Carson and R.L. Reese bought the Rogers Hardware & Furniture Company from W.M. Rogers. It was located across the street from the J.R. Reed business. They renamed the store Reed - Carson Hardware & Furniture Company and sold groceries, furniture, and John Deere farm equipment. The John Deere farm equipment was shipped from St. Louis, and some were shipped in "pool cars" with Lewis Brothers in Fayetteville, Arkansas.

After Lowery's death in 1934 until 1946 Sarah Reed, C.J. Carson, and B.F. Reed were partners in the business. Slogans for the hardware store were "Buy your hardware from a Hardware Store — the House of Quality Merchandise for a Farm & Home" and "Quality remains long after the price is forgotten". Working in the business with Sarah Reed were B.F. and Lillus Reed, parents of Emma Dean Panter.

After returning from the service in 1946 Quentin M. and Welch E. (Gene) Reed bought C.J. Carson's part of the business. The name was changed to Reed's Hardware & Furniture Company with Sarah Reed Bragg and her two sons as partners. After Sarah's death, Quentin Reed, Jr. became a partner.

Today Reed's Hardware sells plumbing, electrical supplies, hardware, paint, and floor covering.

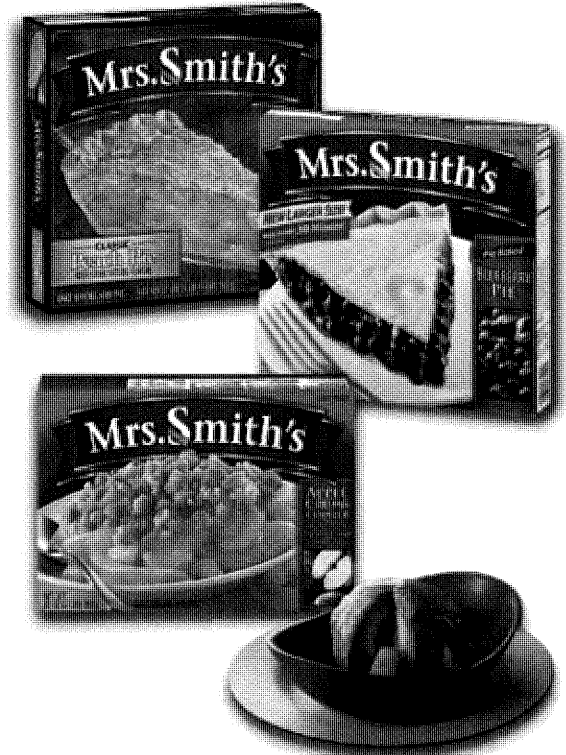

None of the success that Reed's Hardware has enjoyed in the past would have been possible without the help and support of B.F. Reed, Ross Reed, and Leonard Poor.

The following have also worked for Reed's Hardware at different times: Carl Reed (B.F.'s brother), Naomi (Sis) Reed, Doris Jo Reed, Austin Johnson, Dollie Sharp, Pauline Ray, and Jack Eubanks.

Best Wishes For The 64th Annual Stilwell Strawberry Festival

People around Stilwell know Joe Crittenden as a respected servant of the community. You may know Joe as a Cherokee Councilman where since 2003 he has served on every Standing Committee of the Council and as Chairman of Health and Co-Chair of both Rules and Community Services.

You may know Joe from the Housing Authority of the Cherokee Nation where he served as Vice Chairman. Mankiller first appointed Joe as Commissioner and Byrd reappointed him during those years the HACN was building 300 homes a year and was voted the #1 Housing Authority in the entire USA.

Many know Joe from his 25 years with the US Postal Service when he ran the Roland or the Sallisaw facilities or later when he was Postmaster of Marble City. But in Adair County we know him for his years of dedication as Postmaster of Stilwell until he retired. Some know him as a member of the Baron Volunteer Fire Department or as the past song leader of the Baron Baptist Church.

However you know Joe your likely to know him as an honest person who exemplifies the spirit of being a good neighbor. Through his lifetime of service he has become almost predictable, exhibiting a quality too rarely seen in leaders today. He consistently does the right thing for the right reason.

Joe never misses the Stilwell Strawberry Festival where this year he will be asking for your support in the election on June 25th as he seeks a greater opportunity to serve all Cherokees as Deputy Chief of the Cherokee Nation.

Drycreek plays a wide variety of music from the past and present, including country, classic rock and blues. Its members are Mike Partain of Stilwell, Ken Philpott of Skiatook, Shawn Maloney of Sand Springs and Roger Johnson of Sapulpa. Drycreek was initially formed by Mike, Ken and Shawn in 1998, with Roger joining in late 2009. However, the band has even earlier roots going back to 1971. Mike and Ken, who are hometown Stilwell boys, first met and began playing together while attending Stilwell Junior High School. Prior to last year's Festival, Mike and Ken had last appeared on the Stilwell Strawberry Festival Stage in 1975. "We really enjoyed playing at last year's Strawberry Festival and are very excited to be returning this year. Thanks to the Kiwanis Club of Stilwell for the hard work they put in to the Festival and for allowing us be a part of it again", says Mike. Drycreek's diverse musical influences include the Eagles, Brooks & Dunn, Creedence Clearwater Revival and Bread, among many others.

Mike provides lead vocals and plays rhythm guitar for Drycreek. He has played in various country, rock and bluegrass bands in Tulsa, Oklahoma City and Denver, Colorado. He has shared the stage with such artists as Merle Haggard, Don Williams and Ricky Skaggs during his 30-year musical career. Mike graduated from Stilwell High School in 1975 and attended Oklahoma Christian University. His wife Brenda (Lawrence) is a lifelong resident of Stilwell and former Strawberry Queen.

Ken plays drums for the band. Prior to forming Drycreek, he performed for many years in various country and rock bands in Oklahoma, including Southern Storm, Gold Standard, Random Pleasure and Token. Ken has also won national song-writing awards and spends his time either playing with his granddaughter Gracie or teaching drum lessons to several students in the Skiatook area, when not performing with Drycreek.

Shawn, plays lead guitar and also provides background vocals for Drycreek. He has played in various rock, blues, and country bands in the Tulsa area over the last 30 years. Shawn actually began his musical career as a trumpet player, but got tired of the guitar players always stealing his girlfriends so he switched to guitar. It eventually paid off when he met his lovely wife Anita. Roger plays bass for Drycreek and also provides background vocals. He joined the band in late 2009 and is the newest member. Roger says that he also brings a level of youth and good looks to the band that was lacking before. Previously, he played with various bands in the Tulsa area, including Raizin' Cane and Over Educated. Some of his favorite musical influences are the Eagles, Van Halen, Bon Jovi, Paul McCartney and Timothy B. Schmidt.

Drycreek is keeping busy playing various venues in Northeast Oklahoma. You can keep up with where they are and hear some of their music by visiting their web site at www.drycreekmusic.com.
