My Dear Parishioners,

Each year on November 9 we celebrate the Feast of the Dedication of the Lateran Basilica. Why is that? It is easy to understand why we commemorate saints, but why a building? It could be argued that it is the Pope's Church, the official seat of the Bishop of Rome. While this papal connection provides status, it does not earn the right to have a full day dedicated to it. If that was the case, then St. Peter's Basilica should be honored as well.

It has earned this right because this was the first public building granted to the Christians by Rome, when Constantine made Christianity legal - bringing decades of persecution to an end. While this was a significant event, certainly worth commemorating, the early Church saw this as confirmation of their belief in the risen Christ, who is the cornerstone of their faith for them, this first Cathedral Church symbolized Christian Community.

They understood, as Saint Paul suggested to the community in Corinth, "no one can lay a foundation other than the one that is there, namely Jesus Christ."

The Lateran Basilica is the official cathedral for every Pope in the history. It is intended to serve as a symbol of how faith in Christ will triumph over evil. The history of this basilica testifies to this truth. Being destroyed numerous times, it was always rebuilt, signifying how the Church, with Christ as its foundation, can never be held down.

The Church will survive. The body of Christ will survive. No matter how it may be attacked from outside or within the Lateran reminds us that our faith built on the foundation of Christ can never be destroyed. This foundation gives us hope. As Saint Paul taught the Corinthians, we are the temple of God and the Spirit of God dwells within us. Even though we may face challenges in our faith, if Christ is our foundation, we will never be defeated.

The Lateran Basilica reminds us that whenever we gather as a community, we do so with the knowledge that our Church building, and each one of us, is a dwelling place of God. Both remind us of the need to reverence our sacred spaces and respect ourselves and one another who image the very God we worship.

Brothers and Sisters,

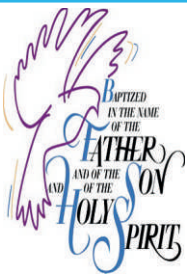

Please continue to pray for peace in the world, stop the violence and wars. Also, in this special month of November, pray for our deceased members in our parish, in our families and friends.

With my love and prayers.

Sincerely in Christ,

Watch on FORMED: How to Advent

Advent sometimes just feels like that time that is sandwiched between Thanksgiving and Christmas – life is hectic with Christmas shopping, parties, the school year ending, and so much more. But as Catholics – we really ought to enter into this season of joyful anticipation with purpose and intention!

In How to Advent, we will discover the rich traditions that mark this season and how they aid us in preparing our hearts for the birth of the child Jesus at Christmas. Guided by priests, religious, professors, and a charismatic host, you will gain practical tips and spiritual reflection on the practices of the Advent calendar, Advent wreath, Jesse tree, and nativity scene.

There are four episodes in this show that are between 12 and 15 minutes.
