My Dear Parishioners,

Today we celebrate Pentecost, known to be the birth date of the Church. Birthdays are a time of celebration and recognition of our beginnings. Our Liturgy of the Word today reveals important elements of what it means to be Church.

In the first reading, the Holy Spirit is described as a strong driving wind that fills an entire house. Imagine the power of that situation. We can see this same vitality in the Church's work as a force for good in the world. Parishes bring together people of all different walks of life to share lives of faith. Works of mercy are undertaken to meet the needs of communities around the world. Individuals find healing and hope in the grace of the sacraments. In each of these areas and in so much more, we can feel the rush of the Spirit present around us and moving us forward together.

The first reading also describes the Holy Spirit as resting on each of the disciples. Indeed, all of us, especially those who have received the Sacrament of Confirmation, have received the Holy Spirit. We each have a part to play in the Church. This is affirmed by the second reading today. As Saint Paul reflects, "there are different kinds of Spiritual gifts, but the same spirit. There are different forms of service, but the same Lord. There are different workings, but the same God who produces all of them in everyone." God has given each of us our own spiritual gifts to serve the world. Although our gifts are different, but we are one in the Spirit.

In the Gospel, Jesus appears after His death and resurrection to His disciples, offering peace and the Holy Spirit. Let us take peace and the Holy Spirit with us as we celebrate the Church's birthday. Let us take stock of the gifts we have been given and thank God for them. Let us also give thanks for the gifts He has given to others.

Brothers and Sisters,

As we celebrate the birth of the Church, let us remember that it began with the disciples going out into the world. Today, we are those disciples with that call. May we find peace in our ongoing discernment of what gifts God has given to us. May we remember that He is always with us, including in a special way in the Eucharist. May we share this beautiful Spirit with all of those around us.

Please continue to pray for peace in the world and the end to wars and violence. Pray also for our parish family and for my special intention.

Sincerely in Christ,

THE SACRIFICE OF THE MASS - GESTURES AND RITUALS WITH SIMPLE EXPLANATIONS - PART 1

Participant or Spectator?

All too often we hear Catholics say they get nothing out of Mass. Perhaps it is because they do not know the meaning of all that is happening on the Altar. We should be participants with the Priest in offering the Sacrifice of the Mass and not just spectators. We can enjoy, appreciate and participate with the Priest when we know the meaning and reasons for the prayers and rituals throughout the Mass.

The Priest kisses the Altar at the beginning of Mass because it is a symbol of Christ and a sign of love and respect for Christ, who will come down to be the sacrificial victim.

Priest's Actions reflect meanings such as: Humility, Adoration, Supplication, Intercession and Repentance, depending on the prayers that are being said.

"The celebration of Holy Mass is as valuable as the death of Jesus on the cross."

-- St. Thomas Aquinas

Memorial Day ~ Monday, May 25

For many Americans, Memorial Day signifies a three-day weekend and the unofficial kick off to summer.

But Memorial Day is much more than that; it's a time for Americans to collectively reflect on the impact of the lives lost in U.S. wars and to honor all military veterans. It is a national day of mourning. If you plan to celebrate the holiday weekend with picnic or barbeque, be sure to include a moment to remember all of our veterans, both past and present.

Say a prayer for the men and women in uniform who are overseas, as well as for peacekeeping troops around the world.

Say another prayer for the families of soldiers who mourn the loss of those who died in service or who deal with the absence deployed on active duty.
