My Dear Parishioners,

Focus: Jesus our Bread of Life, abides with us as we journey through the desert of our life.

Today is the Solemnity of The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, also known as the Solemnity of Corpus Christi. This is a time to celebrate-in a particularly focused way-what we celebrate and believe every time we gather at Christ's altar for Mass. That is, we profess the Real Presence of the Body and Blood, soul, and divinity of Jesus Christ in the elements of and under the appearance of, bread and wine in the Eucharist.

Today we see a parallel between the people of Israel in their flight from Egypt and wandering in the desert to Jesus feeding of us in His body and blood. At the end of the 40-year journey, Moses reminded the people of the faithfulness God showed them in providing what they needed, and He instructs them not to forget God who has guided them, and fed their hunger.

The story of the people of Israel in the desert is our story. We too face unknown physical and spiritual dangers as we journey through our lives. Just as the mana kept the people alive through their journey, so too, does the Eucharist keep our souls alive in the desert of our earthly life.

But the parallel with the manna in the desert is only partial. Our "manna" the Eucharist, is so much more than food for the journey. Jesus tells us in the Gospel that if we eat His flesh and drink His blood, we will remain in Him and He in us, and that will lead us to eternal life. The Eucharist we receive on Sunday carries us throughout the week, as Jesus remains in us. He is a steady presence, sharing in the good times and in the struggles of our lives.

Brothers and Sisters,

Today, as we receive Jesus, let us pray for open, quiet hearts throughout the week-hearts that will know of the presence of Jesus in the beauty around us, in the love of family and friends, even in the challenges that we face. When we eat Jesus' Body and drink His Blood in the Eucharist, Jesus remains with us. Let us pray for an awareness of that presence so that we can be the body and blood of Christ to others.

Please continue to pray for peace in the world and the end to wars and violence. Pray also for our parish family and for my special intention.

Sincerely in Christ,

Fr. Andrzej

THE SACRIFICE OF THE MASS - GESTURES AND RITUALS WITH SIMPLE EXPLANATIONS

Participant or Spectator?

All too often we hear Catholics say they get nothing out of Mass. Perhaps it is because they do not know the meaning of all that is happening on the Altar. We should be participants with the Priest in offering the Sacrifice of the Mass and not just spectators. We can enjoy, appreciate and participate with the Priest when we know the meaning and reasons for the prayers and rituals throughout the Mass.

The Book of Gospels is kissed out of reverence for the sacred words that have been read and to show that they are a message of the Lord's grace and mercy.

When the Priest mixes the water with the wine it represents the union of the Divine and Human natures of Christ. The Priest says: "By the mystery of this water and wine may we come to share in the divinity of Christ who humbled Himself to share in our humanity."
