My Dear Parishioners,

Today we hear part of Jesus' teaching on the importance and demands of discipleship. As He sends the Apostles out to preach, He reminds them that they can expect hardship and a variety of responses to their preaching. Yet they are not too afraid of whatever might happen, for they will never be without His care and love.

Jesus is saying our response to Him is that we must be "all-in." If we think about it, it makes perfect sense, whatever one invests the most of oneself in brings the greatest return. Therefore, those who invest in the relationship with Christ will receive a prophet's rewards. Like a frame that gives definition, strength, and shape to a building, discipleship gives the same to our lives. But we must choose that frame-God will never impose it.

Today we hear about the woman from Shunem who sought to serve God by assisting His servant. Her generosity did not go unnoticed, but rather, is rewarded with her deepest wish--a child.

Saint Paul reminds us that we are each baptized in Christ-called by God just as the woman from Shunem was called by Elisha and the disciples were called by Jesus. That call emanating from the very heart of God to follow Jesus and to take up our cross is at the heart of our baptismal identity.

Today we are challenged to reflect on how we have accepted this call. If we are indeed serious about our relationship with Christ, then we will be open to allowing it to grow and deepen.

Making the choice to follow Jesus, and then living it fully, is difficult and challenging-even Jesus acknowledges this. But there is reward. When we put God first, when we serve God before all else, we are promised eternal life with Him.

Let that promise inspire and strengthen our commitment to be faithful as God is always faithful. And may the grace of the Eucharist be the frame upon which we build our lives.

Brothers and Sisters,

Please continue to pray for peace in the world and the end to wars and violence. Pray also for our parish family and for my special intention.

Sincerely in Christ,

Food Pantry item of the month ~ canned veggies.

Thank you for your generous and loyal support of this outreach ministry.

If you are not able to receive Holy Communion, but would like to receive a blessing; please make sure that you are in a Priest or Deacon Communion line. Cross your arms flat on your shoulders, bow your head slightly, and the Priest or Deacon will offer a blessing. Lay Ministers are not able to lay hands on you.

What is the Elijah Cup?

The Elijah Cup is a consecrated Chalice which serves as a focal point of prayer for vocations to priesthood, diaconate and religious life.

The Elijah Cup Ministry is an ongoing prayer ministry where parish individuals or families request to take the Chalice into their homes for one week. We ask that the Chalice be placed in a prominent place in your home as a reminder to pray for vocations to priesthood, diaconate, and religious life.

If you are interested please see the Sacristan at Mass for available dates and on how to sign up.

** (The Elijah Cup must be returned on Friday by 10am to the Parish Office, or at 3pm on Saturday at the Church.) ****

2027 Mass Intentions Book Opening

THE SACRIFICE OF THE MASS - GESTURES AND RITUALS WITH SIMPLE EXPLANATIONS

Participant or Spectator? All too often we hear Catholics say they get nothing out of Mass. Perhaps it is because they do not know the meaning of all that is happening on the Altar. We should be participants with the Priest in offering the Sacrifice of the Mass and not just spectators. We can enjoy, appreciate and participate with the Priest when we know the meaning and reasons for the prayers and rituals throughout the Mass.

Breaking the Bread as Christ Broke Bread at the Last Supper. The Priest breaks a small piece off the left half and puts it into the chalice. The Priest says, "May this mingling of the body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ, bring eternal life to us who receive it." As a separation of the two elements signify Christ's death, the reunion reminds us of His resurrection.

Prayers before Communion. Before his Communion, the Priest says: "Lord Jesus Christ, Son of the living God, who, by the will of the Father and the work of the Holy Spirit, through your Death gave life to the world, free me by this, your most holy Body and Blood, from all my sins and from every evil; keep me always faithful to your commandments, and never let me be parted from you." OR: "May the receiving of your Body and Blood, Lord Jesus Christ, not bring me to judgment and condemnation, but through your loving mercy be for me protection in mind and body and a healing remedy."

The flower arrangements on the Altar are given to the greater glory of God, and in memory of, Howard Chambers.
