Dear Brothers and Sisters,

The moral of today's Gospel parable seems so unfair. The workers who put in the whole day's work and sweat receive the same wage as those who were there for only one hour. It makes us want to ask – "Jesus, what is going on here?"

And then we remember that envy says everything about us, and nothing about what God is doing here. So, what is happening in this parable? First, it's helpful to key in on Jesus's use of the phrase "usual daily wage". This was not a great sum by any stretch of the imagination but sustenance money. It was just enough to live on.

All of the workers need the wage in order to supply their families with food for the day. Whether they were fortunate enough to get work first thing in the day or later in the day, the amount of money the hired workers had to earn in a day in order to survive. The last group in today's parable must have thought that God answered their fervent prayers that someone, somewhere, would at least give them work before the day was through. They probably only expected to receive pennies for their labor. What a shock to get "a living wage" with which to return to their families.

The point then, it seems, is not about our sense of fairness or justice, but about the behavior of the landowner. He does not act like most owners. He offers a living wage to all who work for him, even the one-hour laborers. He understands what it takes for these workers to be able to subsist, to care for their families, eat, pay taxes, and have the self-respect and dignity of work.

When we understand that the landowner is representative of the kingdom of heaven, it starts to make sense. We get a glimpse of the good Lord who offers salvation. It is salvation available to anyone who enters the vineyard, at any time, and is not diminished for one by its distribution to another. The Lord does not offer partial salvation, and it is certainly not salvation that we deserve. He offers the salvation that he knows we need and desire. We are recipients of the Lord's abundant mercy and generosity. His mercy is so outstanding that we can hope only to know, love, and serve him all the days of our life.

My Dear Parishioners,

Brothers and Sisters,

Please continue to pray for peace in the world and the end to wars and violence. Pray also for our parish family and for my special intention.

Sincerely in Christ,

Fr. Andrzej
