Brothers and Sisters,

Today's Holy Gospel is considered to be one of the most important teachings of Jesus. Indeed, the message is very clear – Love of God and love of neighbor are the two most important commandments in the eyes of the Lord.

Too often we think of love in terms of feelings. But love is not just sending good thoughts or feelings to others. It takes its form in concrete action, as the first reading points out. But what if we feel no capacity to love others? It is easy to get caught up in our own business and think we have nothing left to give. If this is the case, something is missing, and today's Gospel holds the answer.

To love God with all our heart, mind, soul, and strength means that we are orienting all those areas toward our God. God's love has already been given to us. He brought us into existence because of His love for humanity. His love sustains us every day. When we open ourselves up to Him, our hearts are flooded with his love. It is this experience which gives us the ability and capacity to love others. Remember the words of the First Letter of John – "We love because God first loved us".

We cannot give what we do not have. This is why it is essential to be committed to prayer and sacraments. Every time we receive the Eucharist, we receive God who is love, into our hearts. When we pray, grace is poured out into our hearts.

This love, greater than the universe, cannot be kept to ourselves. God's love always pushes us outside ourselves, toward others. The experience of being loved so deeply by our Creator and Savior naturally pushes us to desire that others have that same experience. To love our neighbor as ourselves means acting in a way that demonstrates that we want the best for the other person, the same way we want what is good for ourselves.

Brothers and sisters, there is nothing better than the love of God. By first receiving God's love and letting it pour out into our actions, we fulfill Christ's commandments.

With this reflection in our minds, let us be good followers in Jesus's teaching and continue to love God and our neighbor, to love every Brother and Sister in our Family Parish at St. Ann's. Also, we must pray so the gift of love is in and with us every day of our lives.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Andrzej Jankowski
