Brothers and sisters,

Our allegiance to country – be it the United States or other nations – is important, but never more important than our allegiance to God. Our primary identity is not as citizens of a particular country, but as children of God. It is God to whom we belong, first and foremost. This is the message of today's readings.

In the Gospel, Jesus' opponents try to entrap him on the question of taxes. Jesus' response is, "repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God". Caesar's image and inscription are on the Roman coin. Thus, they belong to Caesar.

Jesus does not ask, but the next question is implied – Where do we find God's image and inscription? The answer is in us, his children. God created us in his image and inscribed his law on our hearts. No matter what their allegiance to Rome, Jesus' message to his opponents is that they belong to God. Caesar may claim the coins to be his own, but he cannot claim people, they are claimed by God.

Brothers and sisters,

We are God's, we belong to Him. We must repay to God what belongs to God, and how do we do this? We do this by giving God our very selves – loving Him with all our heart, all our soul, all our mind. We do this by giving God the best we have to offer – our first fruits of time, talent, and treasure. We do this by giving God our primary allegiance – putting God first before nations or kingdoms, political or economic systems.

Participating in the Holy Eucharist, we are united with Christ and one another in offering our very selves to God. The grace of the sacrament strengthens our unity and allegiance to the One to whom we belong – now and forever.

Let us pray for unity in our church and in our country and continue to love God and your neighbor.

Fr. Andrew Jurek

October is the Month of the Rosary

Join the Rosary Prayer Group in the Youth Room on Tuesdays at 10:30am to pray the Rosary. The Rosary is also said before every weekday Mass. All are welcome to pray with us.

Dear Jesus,

As I carve my pumpkin, help me say this prayer: Open my mind, so I can learn about you; (Cut the top off the pumpkin.)

Take all my sin, and forgive the wrong that I do. (Clean out the inside.)

Open my eyes, so your love I will see; (Cut eyes shaped like hearts.)

I'm so sorry for times I've turned up my nose at what you've given to me. (Cut a nose in the shape of the cross.)

Open my ears, so your Word I will hear; (Cut ears shaped like the Bible.)

Open my mouth to tell others you're near. (Cut the mouth in the shape of a fish.)

Let your light shine in all I say and do! Amen. (Place a candle inside, and light it.)
