

San Francisco Choral Society Concerts in 2025

| Date/Venue                                | Works Performed                                                                    | Artists                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
|-------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| May 3 & 4Calvary Presbyterian Church  | J. S. Bach Mass in B-Minor                                                  | Robert Geary, artistic directorOrchestra of Cantata CollectiveMichelle Kennedy, sopranoHeidi Waterman, sopranoShauna Fallihee, altoMichael Jankowsky, tenorWilford Kelly, baritone |
| August 16Davies Symphony Hall         | BrahmsEin Deutsches Requiem                                             | Robert Geary, artistic directorCalifornia Chamber SymphonyCara Gabrielson, sopranoAndrew Thomas Pardini, baritone                                                                              |
| November 15 & 16Trinity + St. Peter's | Vaughan-WilliamsDona Nobis PacemGjeilo The Lake Isle, Brontë | Robert Geary, artistic directorCalifornia Chamber SymphonyKeisuke Nakagoshi, pianoMaxwell Gibbs, guitarMichelle Kennedy, sopranoKenneth Goodson, baritone                              |
| December 21 & 22                          | Festival of Carols                                                                 | Bryan Baker, artistic directorInara Morgenstern, piano                                                                                                                                                 |