Directions. Read each scenario and list where the materials would be found in the space provided. List the exact location. For example, “located on website on the resource page under the heading Substantive Change Form”.

You are a program administrator looking for:

1. A resource booklet to help you understand CNEA and your role in accreditation.

2. How to submit a curriculum change.

3. How to request a site visit.

4. Resources on completing reports, including calculating FTEs and completion rates.

5. Publications authored by NLN CNEA staff that can help inform program improvements.

6. Dates for pre-accreditation for a new program we are adding and want to seek pre-accreditation.

7. A list of current pre-accredited and accredited programs in your state.

8. Workshops and webinars you can attend.
