

Test Your Knowledge About Animal Groups

Test your knowledge about animal groups by completing the quiz.

- All animals live in social groups with other members of their species.
A ☐ True B ☐ False
- Animals that live alone are called...
A ☐ Solitary B ☐ Gregarious
C ☐ Migratory D ☐ Lonely
- Animals that live in groups are called...
A ☐ Solitary B ☐ Gregarious
C ☐ Migratory D ☐ Friendly
- Which of these is INCORRECT?
A ☐ A pride of lions
B ☐ A herd of elephants
C ☐ A school of flamingos
D ☐ A committee of vultures
- Flamingos live in tight social groups where each member has a job that helps the group.
A ☐ True B ☐ False
- Fish gather in tight schools to...
A ☐ Find better food
B ☐ Build large shelters
C ☐ Avoid predators
D ☐ Help them swim
- Why do animals like African painted dogs and lions live in a group?
A ☐ To avoid predators
B ☐ To catch prey
C ☐ To build larger shelters
D ☐ To play
- Some animals, like bison, live in a large group because it is easier to find...
A ☐ Hiding places B ☐ Water
C ☐ Competition D ☐ A mate
- Which of the following is a CHALLENGE of living in a group?
A ☐ There is competition for food
B ☐ It is easier to catch prey
C ☐ There is more access to mates
D ☐ They can avoid predators
- Living in a group makes some animals more vulnerable to humans who are hunting or poaching.
A ☐ True B ☐ False