

Lionfish Lies

Mark each statement true by circling "T" or false by circling "F."

- | | | |
|--|---|---|
| 1. Lionfish are carnivores that hunt a variety of animals. | T | F |
| 2. Lionfish are an invasive species in kelp forests around the world. | T | F |
| 3. Lionfish live in coral reef ecosystems. | T | F |
| 4. Lionfish are critically endangered and may go extinct soon. | T | F |
| 5. Lionfish have no way to defend themselves and are easy prey. | T | F |
| 6. Lionfish are named for their stripes. | T | F |
| 7. Lionfish inject venom using spines on their back. | T | F |
| 8. There is nothing humans can do to control invasive lionfish. | T | F |
| 9. Lionfish are commonly found in aquariums because of their beautiful appearance. | T | F |
| 10. Lionfish release thousands of eggs when spawning. | T | F |