

Test Your Marine Iguana Knowledge

Test your knowledge about marine iguanas by completing the quiz.

- Marine iguanas are endemic to the Galapagos Islands, meaning they are not found anywhere else in the world.
A True B False
- Marine iguanas propel themselves through the water using their...
A Feet B Hands
C Fins D Tail
- Marine iguanas primarily feed on...
A Grass B Leaves
C Algae D Insects
- Aside from holding their breath, marine iguanas also have limited time in the ocean because of...
A Cold water temperatures
B Predators
C Strong currents
D Strong wind gusts
- Like all reptiles, marine iguanas are endothermic, meaning they are warm-blooded.
A True B False
- After feeding, marine iguanas _____ on the beach to warm their body temperature.
A Bask B Burrow
C Migrate D Hibernate
- Marine iguanas use _____ scales to warm up quickly after feeding.
A Light B Dark
C Small D Large
- Marine iguanas have a _____ relationship with lava lizards and Sally lightfoot crabs.
A Parasitic B Predatory
C Mutualistic D Herbivorous
- Marine iguanas and their eggs are eaten by non-native _____ species.
A Invasive B Territorial
C Juvenile D Larva
- Marine iguanas typically lay their eggs...
A In the ocean B In tree hollows
C In tree branches D Underground