

Test Your Red-Eyed Tree Frog Knowledge

Test your knowledge about red-eyed tree frogs by completing the quiz.

- Red-eyed tree frogs are native to Australia.
A ☐ True B ☐ False
- Other than camouflage, how do red-eyed tree frogs avoid predators?
A ☐ Warning sounds B ☐ Poison
C ☐ Startle display D ☐ Venom
- Red-eyed tree frogs have a transparent eyelid called a(n) _____ membrane.
A ☐ Arboreal B ☐ Nictitating
C ☐ Hibernating D ☐ Metamorphosis
- Based on their diet, red-eyed tree frogs are considered to be...
A ☐ Herbivores B ☐ Omnivores
C ☐ Scavengers D ☐ Insectivores
- Female red-eyed tree frogs bury their eggs in wet soil.
A ☐ True B ☐ False
- Red-eyed tree frogs go through metamorphosis, meaning...
A ☐ They sleep through the winter
B ☐ They travel long distances when seasons change
C ☐ They go through different phases during their life cycle
D ☐ They live high in the trees
- As a tadpole, red-eyed tree frogs have which of these traits?
A ☐ Gills B ☐ Lungs
C ☐ Legs D ☐ Red eyes
- Once they become adults, red-eyed tree frogs develop the ability to...
A ☐ Swim B ☐ Eat
C ☐ Mate D ☐ Breathe underwater
- Red-eyed tree frogs can speed up or slow down their metamorphosis based on environmental conditions.
A ☐ True B ☐ False
- Each of these is a predator of red-eyed tree frogs except...
A ☐ Snakes B ☐ Wasps
C ☐ Koalas D ☐ Birds