Rules and Resources

- AT LEAST two of the five activities marked with ★ are required to win the GRAND prize. Even if you score the most points, you will not be eligible to win the grand prize without completing two of the ★ activities. Participation prizes will be allocated.
- Points are not repeatable. Each activity can be completed more than once, but you only receive points once.
- The Asana form needs to be filled out per each activity to be eligible for points associated with their completion. Make sure to have each form filled out, with proof (if required) to receive the points.
- Proof is required for some activities. These will be turned in through the Asana form, points will be allocated for activities requiring proof only if proof was provided.
- The scorecard is for your own tracking, and points will only be distributed according to whether or not the Asana form was filled out.
