BE YOUR BEST ACTIVE SELF

"It all started when our founder, Kim Overton, went out for a run and tucked her key into her jog bra, thinking, "There's got to be a better way."

That simple moment sparked the idea for SPIbelt. What began as a single running belt has grown into a global brand embraced by fitness lovers, frequent travelers, and those with medical needs.

Today, with a growing line of belts and accessories, SPIbelt gives you the freedom to move with confidence and be your best active self—wherever life takes you."

BORN IN AUSTIN, TX

We have been in business since 2006. A majority of our products are born in Austin, TX and are sold to thousands of retailers in over 40 countries worldwide.

MADE WITH LOVE

We strive to create products that are unique, intuitive, and made with the utmost quality. We hope you love your SPI gear as much as we do!

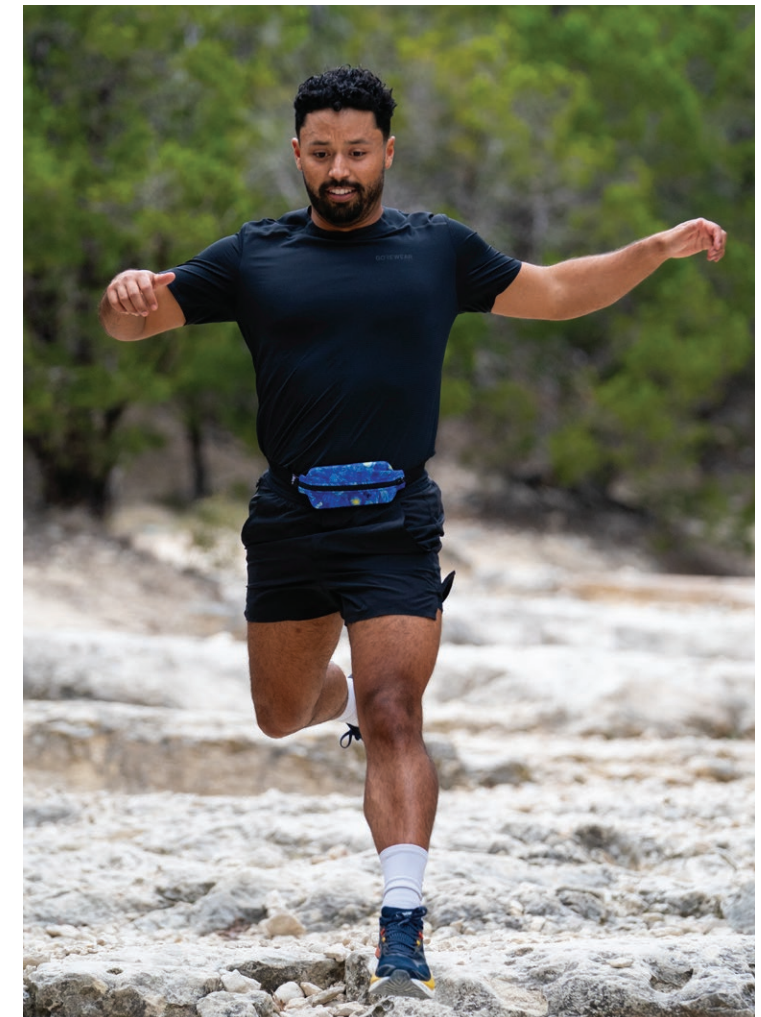

RUNNING & FITNESS

Designed for runners and fitness enthusiasts, our SPIbelts keep essentials like phones, fuel, and keys secure and bounce-free. Stay hands-free and focused whether you're logging miles on the road, trail, or treadmill.

THE T1D COMMUNITY

Living with Type 1 Diabetes means being prepared, and our Medical SPIbelts help make that easier. With a snug, comfortable fit and discreet design, SPIbelt keeps insulin pumps and other supplies safe and accessible whenever needed.

THE SPIBELT

VOTED BEST RUNNING BELT

The SPIbelt® expands to hold larger smartphones; including the iPhone® 13 Pro Max and Samsung Galaxy® S20+. This fitness belt is called one of the best running belts for marathon runners, but its use doesn't stop there. It is perfect for walking, working out, travel, medical needs, and so much more. Keeps all your exercise accessories, headphones, keys, ID, and credit cards safe, secure, and close at hand. The SPIbelt expands to carry what you need.

ECO-FRIENDLY SPIBELT

The Eco SPIbelt features the same capacity and fit as The SPIbelt, but is made with 87% recycled materials! Production of the Eco SPIbelt re-directs plastic water bottles, plastic scraps, fabric, and elastic that would otherwise go to landfills. Here at SPIbelt, we're on a mission to help people live their best active lives, and we believe that a healthy planet supports healthy communities.

★★★★★

I got a SPIbelt in the last couple weeks of marathon training last fall. I loved it so much I needed more in different colors. The uses are endless and with no bounce.

-Maria S.

★★★★★

I have bought 3 belts and they are all great. I had questions and customer service was prompt and answered everything. I will be back.

-Marisa B.

★★★★★

I have used a Spibelts to hold my insulin pump for years. It was designed extremely well and it has allowed me to work and be active better.
