Ambassador Rules of Conduct:

Every Whidbey Island Fair Ambassador becomes a representative of the highest ideals of the Whidbey Island Fair. What is said and done is magnified many times for good or bad.

The ICFA Board are solely responsible for the rules governing the Ambassador Program. If rules are not practiced, the offending Ambassador is subject to warning, probation, and review by the Fair and Board and appropriate action will be taken on a case by case basis.

The Whidbey Island Fair reserves the right to relieve any Ambassador of their title. If the Ambassador resigns or is relieved of their title, they will be required to return all clothing and accessories purchased by the Whidbey Island Fair and forfeit their scholarship.

Conduct:

Ambassadors are expected to conduct themselves in a respectful manner during the Whidbey Island Fair and at any time they are representing the Ambassador Program.

- Courtesy and respect should be practiced at all times. Ambassadors should model good behavior, act inclusively, demonstrate sound judgement, always use appropriate language. Ambassadors are in the public eye and are considered role models, representing the Whidbey Island Fair.
- While participating in the Whidbey Island Fair Ambassador program, there is zero tolerance for use of alcohol, tobacco, vaping or illegal substance use.
- Friends, including boyfriends/girlfriends, are not allowed to “tag along” in any official appearances with Ambassadors.
