Exaltation of the Holy Cross

September 14, 2025

Com. of Fourteenth Sunday after Pentecost

Please observe silence in the church after Mass out of respect for Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament and so as not to disturb people who are praying.

Fr. Bernard Hall downstairs is closed until further notice.

FOR OUR VISITORS: In 2010 the Vatican clarified that there is no provision for receiving Holy Communion in the hand at the Traditional Latin Mass. The universal norm for the reception of Holy Communion throughout the world is to receive on the tongue at all Masses in either form. However in the United States, those who wish to receive in the hand may do so but only at the new form of Mass, not at the Traditional Latin Mass. The Bishops of the United States have further clarified that this decision is left to the individual receiving not the minister.

The Church of the Assumption has preserved the traditional practices regarding the reception of Holy Communion. Many of our parishioners feel very strongly that Communion in the hand is not appropriately reverent for such a solemn moment. As our Guests, please respect the customary practices of the Church of the Assumption and in charity consider the sincere and deeply held beliefs of our parishioners as you approach Holy Communion.

Cantate Domino": learn to sing and pray the music of the Roman Catholic Church, which gives life to the texts of her sacred liturgy. Register at <https://dub.sh/ISaMxy2>. For questions, please contact Matthew Roth from the schola at assumptionnashvilleschola@gmail.com

As part of the Jubilee Year of Hope, Bishop J. Mark Spalding of Nashville will celebrate a White Mass for healthcare professionals at 5 p.m. on Saturday, Oct. 18, at the Cathedral of the Incarnation. The Mass includes special prayers for physicians, nurses, pharmacists, and therapists. The Mass will fall on the feast of St. Luke, patron of physicians. For more information, visit nashvillefaithformation.com.

Bishop J. Mark Spalding of Nashville will celebrate a Red Mass for legal professionals, including judges, lawyers, and government officials, at 12:10 p.m. on Thursday, Oct. 23, at the Cathedral of the Incarnation. All are invited to join for the Mass, which coincides with the feast of St. John of Capistrano, patron of judges. For more information, visit nashvillefaithformation.com.

Policy on Supervision of Children on Assumption Property In accordance with the Diocesan Safe Environment Policies and best practices, as of January 1, 2023, all children 12 years and younger must be accompanied by a parent, adult or sibling over 16 years old while on all Assumption property.

Vespers Sunday evenings at 6:00 pm.

Construction Update: Please be aware that work will be ongoing on the property and that we are once again a construction site. Stay aware of your safety and that of your family. Roof replacement for Buddeke House has been completed. Work on the Rectory roof is ongoing and work on Fr. Bernard Hall roof will begin soon. Bliemel Park is closed and will remain so for most of the rest of the year. Please be patient with us as we are still struggling to take care of some remaining details to complete the church.

If you would like to donate towards the flowers on the altars please contact the church office. Flowers on the altars have been arranged for a balanced appearance. Do not place unapproved flowers on the altar, these will be removed and disposed of.

The adult conversion class meets on Sundays at 8:30 AM in the Bride's Room in Buddeke House. If you know anyone who is looking to join the Church, return back to the Church, has not yet been confirmed, or is just inquiring, please let them know! Feel free to email winstonfdavis@gmail.com for further information.

The Diocese of Nashville will host the second annual Queen of Families Mass at 2:30 p.m. on Sunday, Oct. 26, at the Cathedral of the Incarnation. Bishop Spalding will celebrate Mass. Mass will invoke Our Lady's intercession for families who have experienced the loss of a child through miscarriage, stillbirth, or other circumstances. For more information, visit nashvillefaithformation.com.

Fr. Price requests that at weekday Masses for reasons of security, please enter the church via the courtyard and the south transept door. Thank you.
