Pentecost by John Restout the Younger

GOOD SHEPHERD PARISH VISION STATEMENT

Good Shepherd Parish strives to be a vibrant, welcoming community where every person can experience the Father's love. Through the Gospel proclamation, prayer, and joyous sacramental celebration, Good Shepherd Parish will inspire parishioners to discern and live out their vocations and to actively evangelize the world. As we bear witness to the Risen Christ, Our Lord and Savior, we aspire to serve our parish community. We will seek to welcome home the new, the lost, and the disheartened by using the gifts and fruits of the Holy Spirit..

GOOD SHEPHERD PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We, the Roman Catholic community of Good Shepherd Parish, strive to be a living sign of Christ's love in and for the world. In response to our Baptismal call, nourished by the Eucharist and guided by the values of the Second Vatican Council, we seek to continue the mission of Jesus Christ by welcoming, supporting and guiding all through prayer, sacramental celebration, service and education.

Pentecost Fulfilled . . .

A strong driving wind can snuff out a flame or it can carry fire—like it had wings—strafing from bush to bush or tree to tree . . .
 or head to head Setting ablaze all it streaks across like liquid spilled and streaming its expanse across a counter claiming all it covers
 A fire carried by a driving wind from head to head Transforming each from still-life to a crackling flare:
 Dancing,
 Flashing,
 Red
 and Yellow and Purple-Blue
 It splits and spreads
 and settles here and there over chosen heads

The marvel of darting fire would terrify their gaze except a strong driving wind when it pelts the face forces closed one's eyes That wind should swell those flames like an eagle's expanding wings till they burn the place to the ground But it doesn't, the wind and they don't, the flames Instead of wreaking havoc and devastation and ruin These flames come to rest
 Come to Rest
 It's the men who rush and spill
 and spread as urgent as a wind-carried fire and with tongues aflame mighty acts of God proclaim

GOOGLE TRANSLATE?

What is the “native language” for kids who grow up with more than one? Students sometimes say that crossing the threshold automatically throws their switch from English to grandparents’ Korean or Romanian with some variations of street Spanish tossed in. Translation apps like “Google Translate” have much more difficulty with languages used in everyday verbal exchange than with published articles. Editors typically ensure that what is printed conforms to fixed rules of grammar. Hardly the case for pilgrims in Jerusalem ca. 33 CE. Negotiating travel, food, or lodging they would have used Greek, Aramaic, or perhaps Hebrew. Perhaps feeling a bit of the ear strain familiar to many of us when we exit the airport into a different language world.

Only the spoken peculiarities of accent or idiom would mark the disciples as Galilean. Of course, it is astonishing for these travelers from Rome, North Africa, Asia Minor, Crete, Arabia, Mesopotamia to hear about the mighty acts of God in what is their own native way of speaking. Not at all a standardized language or pronunciation for the traveler’s smart phone! When Pope John XXIII announced the Second Vatican Council, he depicted the Church as a shuttered building which needs its windows thrown open to be aired out by the Spirit blowing through. Now the people of God hear the Scriptures, celebrate the liturgy, and praise God in their own languages.

Language differences often divide people. In the Tower of Babel story (Gen 11:1-9) God’s “scattered and divided them” as divine retaliation for humanity’s arrogant assault on heaven. To reunite all those peoples, the Spirit does even more than find expression in diverse languages and cultures. It also inspires the diverse activities needed within individual churches to produce a living “body of Christ” as St. Paul points out in our second reading (1 Cor 12:3-7, 12-13). We all know how tough rehab can be when part of the body is injured or lost. So, unless each Christian contributes their special “manifestation of the Spirit” the Good News is muted.
