“The Power of Jesus Over Satan”

My Brothers and Sisters in the Lord – One of the tragic things about our modern culture is that it doesn't take satan – the devil – seriously. Many people make light of satan. Some even dress up like satan at costume parties. And, although they see evil in the world – millions do not attribute it to a personal being like a fallen angel!

Nevertheless, satan is real – He has been present to our world since the dawn of the human race.

The Book of Job was written about 700 years before the time of Jesus. The central figure, Job himself, was a truly good – and godly – man. Job enjoyed the best of everything. He had abundant herds and flocks – He had a wonderful family, great wealth, and very good health.

However, God permitted satan to test Job. Consequently, Job was stripped of everything – except his life. Today, we see him sitting on a manure heap, scraping his sore-infected body, – and bemoaning the hardships of life! His wife even urged him to “Curse God and die!” – because things were so hopeless.

However, Job remained faithful – with complete trust in God. “Naked was I born – and naked will I die – The Lord gives – and the Lord takes away – Blessed be the Name of the Lord!” This was Job's response – and the evidence of his faith.

The only fault that God attributed to Job was that he asked why? – the reason – for all that had befallen him. And God's reply was that no one can know the mystery of human suffering. Its purpose was known to God alone!

Yet, when the time was right – everything was restored to Job in abundance. This was due to his faithfulness and steadfastness – Because there was no real knowledge of an after-life six centuries before the time of Jesus. In the Gospel of Mark, we see Jesus working against satan – and all the forces of evil in the world. He cures Peter's mother-in-law. He restores her to health in an instant!

But Jesus doesn't stop there. He cures all those brought to the house – He drives the demons out of the many who are possessed – Later, he slips away to recharge himself – alone with God, his Father, in prayer.

When found, still later, by Peter and the others, and asked to return – Jesus would not. Instead, he went to the many surrounding villages, synagogues – and throughout Galilee itself. There, he preached the Gospel – the “Good News”. He also drove demons from those who suffered from their possession!

There is a similarity between the Book of Job and this section of St. Mark's Gospel. It is the problem of diabolical evil – and the mystery of suffering. Jesus was the most perfect person who ever lived on this earth. Jesus lived a simple life – without material wealth. He aspired to none of the things any bankrupt culture says is important.

Nevertheless, despite his goodness and his innocence – Jesus suffered the torture and death reserved for the worst criminals of his time! None of this makes sense to the logical mind – Nor to anyone with an understanding of justice. Instead, it seems to show the power of satan and evil in the world – and our inability to prevent it or overcome it!

However, that is only part of the story. It is never the end – the final outcome. As Job was restored after his ordeal – so was Jesus. But the restoration of Jesus was his Resurrection to a new life. It was a return to the Father. The Son of Man is now the Son of God in all his divine glory, in union with the Holy Spirit!

Brothers and Sisters, somehow, the goodness, the truth, and the inner beauty of righteous people – counters the evil, the lies, the grotesque in the culture around us – Somehow, the suffering of the innocent – breaks the hold that satan has upon our world – Somehow, any suffering we experience can be joined to the suffering of Jesus to atone for the sins of the world!

So let us not lose heart – With God's grace: – May we persevere in faith – – May we trust in the unfolding plan of God for the world – – And may we join ourselves to Jesus as he guides us toward the Kingdom! Amen.
