Almighty and Merciful
God
Graciously keep from us all adversity.

SISTERS, WHEREVER YOU ARE, WHATEVER YOUR CIRCUMSTANCES MAY BE, YOU ARE NOT FORGOTTEN. NO MATTER HOW DARK YOUR DAYS MAY SEEM, NO MATTER HOW INSIGNIFICANT YOU MAY FEEL, NO MATTER HOW OVERSHADOWED YOU THINK YOU MAY BE, YOUR HEAVENLY FATHER HAS NOT FORGOTTEN YOU. IN FACT, HE LOVES YOU WITH AN INFINITE LOVE.

Holy Trinity News and Notes

Holy Trinity joint Finance Council and Parish Council Meeting is scheduled for Tuesday, November 28th at 6:30 in the office.

Tuesday Adoration and Mass Time Change Proposal:

In view of winter and to align with other parishes, it is proposed to have Tuesday Mass at 8.30am preceded or followed by Adoration. If more parishioners are willing it, there could be extended hours of Adoration after Mass in which individuals or groups could sign up for each hour. Please give suggestions to Becky McCormick at 507-689-0398.

Future of Holy Trinity School Building: During the HT Finance Council meeting on Oct.17, the main issue discussed was the future of old school. In the previous months, concerned people expressed the need to maintain the building for historical purposes. For that reason, there was a third party's proposal for purchasing and developing apartments, requiring some spots for parking in front and side, boundaries marked and utilities separated. The estimate for demolition comes to $250,000.00 and it is a lot of money. So what is the best option we can take? We wish to hold an open forum for the parishioners in the months ahead. Please continue to reflect, pray, and discern what will be the best option.

Holy Trinity Cemetery Flowers: This is a reminder to please remove all plastic flowers from the cemetery by November 15.

World Day of the Poor celebrated on November 19: "Do not turn your face away from anyone who is poor" (Tob 4:7). These words help us to understand the essence of our witness...We are living in times that are not particularly sensitive to the needs of the poor. The pressure to adopt an affluent lifestyle increases, while the voices of those dwelling in poverty tend to go unheard. We are inclined to neglect anything that varies from the model of life set before the younger generation, those who are most vulnerable to the cultural changes now taking place. We disregard anything that is unpleasant or causes suffering and exalt physical qualities as if they were the primary goal in life. Virtual reality is overtaking real life, and increasingly the two worlds blend into one. The poor become a film clip that can affect us for a moment, yet when we encounter them in flesh and blood on our streets, we are annoyed and look the other way. Haste, by now the daily companion of our lives, prevents us from stopping to help care for others. The parable of the Good Samaritan (cf. Lk 10:25-37) is not simply a story from the past; it continues to challenge each of us in the here and now of our daily lives. It is easy to delegate charity to others, yet the calling of every Christian is to become personally involved. (Pope Francis Message for World Day of the Poor, Nov. 19, 2023).

My Dear Parishioners,

In the Northern Hemisphere the days are growing shorter, the nights longer. Nature seems to be entering a long winter's sleep. Something about the increasing darkness brings out our deepest weaknesses and fears. It lulls some of us into lethargy while luring others into evil. We may grow anxious about the dangers lurking in the dark and ultimately awaiting us at the end of life. All those fears and weaknesses come to the fore when a loved one is out in the dead of night or slipping away into the darkness of eternal slumber. We stay awake and watchful. We keep vigil.

This week's scriptures invite us not to be drugged by the darkness that seems to grow around us and could succumb to slumber, temptation, or fear. We are to keep vigil, but not like those "who have no hope" (1 Thessalonians 4:13). We are to stay awake, working, and watchful, confidently expecting God's light to dawn at every new moment. We are to seek wisdom, keeping vigil for her (book of Wisdom), to thirst for the Lord through the night (Psalm 63), consoling one another (1 Thessalonians). Like the wise virgins, we are to be prepared for a long night of vigil. In the meantime, we are to do the work entrusted to us, free from care and full of hope.

Reflecting on how we will live God's Word think on this... the Thessalonians had stopped working completely, believing that the Lord would come any day. Like the foolish virgins, they didn't think anything was expected of them. But keeping vigil is not a passive undertaking. It involves active engagement in the tasks Christ entrusted to his church. What has he given you for your consideration? Keep smiling.
