Tri-Parish News

Follow up of Eucharistic Congress: The Diocese has expressed the need of forming Parish Revival Teams with the expectations of: To be people of prayer as the Holy Spirit leads the revival! To gather people who attended the Eucharistic Congress. To receive parish year materials for consideration and follow options for implementation. Attend a parish team meeting in July or August to review materials. If possible, attend regional workshop led by diocesan directors on parish year options. Please prayerfully consider joining the parish team. For more info and sign-up contact parish Galvanizers: Kelly Kalmes, David U'Ren, Rebecca McCormick.

Peter's Pence

There will be a second collection for the charitable works of the Holy Father Pope Francis. on July 2, 2023. Thank you.

Votive Candle:

Catholics place a lighted candle by a statue of Jesus, Mary or one of the saints. The candles are called votive candles. They are symbols of the prayers offered.

The symbolism of votive candles in Catholicism is rich and meaningful.

They represent the light of Christ, the presence of the Holy Spirit, and the prayer and devotion of the faithful. The lighting of votive candles is a powerful way of expressing our faith and asking for God's grace and mercy.

Catholics may light a church votive candle for a person who is ill or as a sign of gratitude for someone special. This is a way to show one's solidarity with the person for whom the candle is being lit. They can be lit to memorialize a loved one who has passed away.

My Dear Parishioners,

You may not know of Stanley Francis Rother unless you happen to live in Oklahoma. Born there to a farming family in 1935, young Stan recognized a calling to the priesthood in his teens. After five years in the seminary, he was told he was not studious enough to continue. Fortunately, his bishop believed the best priests were not always the most intellectual, but the most committed. He enrolled the young man at Mount Saint Mary's Seminary in Maryland. Stanley studied diligently and was ordained in 1963. After five years in parish work in Oklahoma, Father Rother volunteered for the Oklahoma diocesan mission among the Tzutuhil, a Mayan people of the western Guatemala highlands.

Father Rother, a strong, hard-working man, ministered to the ordinary spiritual needs of the people while learning the Tzutuhil language and translating scriptures and Mass prayers into Tzutuhil. He helped the people learn to read and write, while a mission radio station transmitted daily language and math lessons. He built a small hospital and worked on plans to improve roads.

Guatemalan political power was in the hands of right-wing elites, who also controlled the military. They blamed the Church for "civil unrest" and supporting the rights of the poor. Father Rother was urged to leave and went to Oklahoma for a short visit, but he insisted on returning even though he was a marked man. In 1981 the mission radio station was smashed, and its director killed. Catechists and parishioners were beaten, tortured, and killed. Father Rother stayed because he believed Jesus' words, "Do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul" (Matthew 10:28). He was shot by a death squad in the night. His body was returned to Oklahoma, but at the request of the Tzutuhil people, his heart was returned to be buried where he served and died.

Many missionaries are risking their lives for Christ today. What can we do? Find a priest, religious, or lay person serving in some dangerous or difficult place and send them e-mails, letters, packages of useful materials, donations, and prayers. Your support can help give them the courage to continue.

Keep smiling.
