Tri-Parish News and Note

2023 Catholic Ministries Appeal supports the diocese of Winona Rochester services to the people of God including Hispanic Ministries, Permanent Diaconate, and Cemeteries. It provides life-long faith formation of adults, forming men into missionary disciples who will be equipped to evangelize and share the faith with others. It offers resources to strengthen marriages and families; it assists in outreach to the poor; and it supports multimedia communications including TV Masses and the Courier newspaper. Bishop Robert is appealing to all Catholics to prayerfully consider how you might give to this year's Appeal. The dollars raised are donor-restricted and only serve to fund the many ministries of the diocese.

Parish Goal: Based on our resources, each parish is set with a goal to fulfill. If we don't fulfill the goal, at the end of the year, we must pay from our parish offertory. Whatever amount we contribute over the goal will be returned 100% to the parish project. Please consider donating whatever you can to achieve our parish goal together. We are grateful for your love and support to building Christ's Church, Fulfilling Christ's Mission. Thank you in advance for your generosity!

CMA-2023 UDATE

St. Rose News and Notes

Thanks to everyone who had a part in the Trash to Treasures Sale. It went great! Our profit was $1142.40. Our church family is amazing.

Vacation Bible School at St Rose will be July 31 – Aug 4th. This is for students age 4 up to going into 6th grade. We are in need of many students (Grades 7 - 12) and adult volunteers. This is open to students from all the parishes. If you are interested in helping please contact Kelly Kalmes or Ashley Gossen at 523-3548. Registration information is available on the website: st-rose.org

Community News and Notes

Institute of Lay Formation offering for 2023-2024 academic year: The institute will provide a one-year formation process of study and reflection on the Church's teachings on the Eucharist. The aim is to form lay who are sent out on mission 'for the life of the world'. Program and registration information is available online: <https://www.dowr.org/offices/lay-formation/Institute.html>. This is a one-year special program open to all in the diocese of Winona-Rochester.

Jesus 2023 conference: Oct 20-22, 2023, Kansas City, KS: Instead of the annual diocesan Holy Spirit Alive conference, we are caravanning to Kansas City for the Triennial National conference of the charismatic renewal, Jesus 2023. If interested contact Susan Windley-Daoust or Dcn. John Hust, our liaison to the national charismatic renewal.

Altura Lions Chicken Q, Saturday, July 8, 11 am until gone, Altura Community Center. ½ chicken, beans, macaroni salad, dinner roll, beverage, $12.00

Organ Recital - The Shrine of our Lady of Guadalupe invites the surrounding community to the July 9th Organ Recital at 3:00 pm. We are very fortunate to have an Organ of this caliber at the Shrine and want to share the music with you! The musical selection was made by and will be performed by the Director of Sacred Music, Scott Turkington. sturkington@guadalupeshrine.org

Serra Quote: If praying alienates you, takes you away from your real life, beware: it is not true prayer, on the contrary, dialogue with God is the guarantee of truth, of truthfulness with oneself and with others and, therefore, of liberty." Pray for vocations!

Winona Serra Club asks you if you believe as we do, that calling forth more holy priests and religious men and women is essential to the future of our church; then we invite you to join our club. By joining, we pray and put our faith into action along with your time and talents for the success of our Serra Apostolate's mission and ministry for vocation. Everyone is welcome! My Dear Parishioners,

A wealthy widower shared a passion for art with his only son. Together they traveled the world, acquiring a collection of masterpieces. When war was declared, the son joined the army and died heroically saving the life of another soldier. This soldier visited the father after the war, not only to tell of how many other lives the son had saved, but to give the father a portrait he had painted of the young man. The father told all his friends it was the greatest gift he had ever received and gave it pride of place.

When the old man died, his will directed that his art collection be auctioned off. Collectors from around the world gathered to bid on the spectacular treasures. The auction began with a small undistinguished painting—the soldier's portrait of the man's son. The auctioneer asked for an opening bid. The room was silent. "Who will open the bidding at a hundred dollars?" he asked. No one spoke. "Who cares about that painting?" shouted someone at the back. "It's just his son. Get on with the good stuff." There were murmurs of agreement. "No, we must sell this one first," replied the auctioneer. "Now, who will take the son?" One man spoke up, "I knew the boy. I bid ten dollars." "Any other bids?" called the auctioneer. "Going once, going twice. Sold!" The gavel fell.

Cheers filled the room. Then the auctioneer announced, "The auction is now over." In stunned disbelief someone said, "What do you mean, it's over? We didn't come here for a picture of the old guy's son. What about all of the millions of dollars' worth of art here? I demand that you explain what's going on!" The auctioneer replied, "It's very simple. It's the father's will. 'Whoever receives my son...will inherit all I have.'"

Let us consider now how we live our stewardship...God created us, gave us life, and redeemed us from sin and death. God loves us without limit. Let us pray in joy and thanksgiving.
Keep smiling.
