My Dear Parishioners,

The Beatitudes can certainly seem illogical and absurd unless we consider the person who is speaking. It is Jesus, the one who became "lowly and despised" in order to become "our righteousness, our sanctification, and our redemption." He personified the anawim—the faithful remnant—to become the true hope of all people. Jesus is the insulted, persecuted one who relies on God alone; he is also the merciful peacemaker and source of all blessing.

To the poor, the mourning, the persecuted, Jesus says, "Everything that you are suffering, I have suffered. God did not abandon me and I will not abandon you." To the rich, the powerful, the content, Jesus says, "I shared every blessing I had with the poor and the lowly, even my life. Do the same and you too will know God's saving mercy." To both Jesus says, "Trust in the Lord of infinite possibilities, who will bless you with courage and peace and true joy together."

The circle of blessing pivots on trust in God. The Christian community that embraces lowliness will be a place of blessing both here and in eternity. All we really need do is to follow our illogical leader, Jesus, the One whose trust in God brought blessing to the whole world.

Keep smiling.
