The Stations of the Cross

St. Rose Thursday mornings after 8:30 Mass

St. Joseph Friday after Mass 9:30am

Holy Trinity Tuesday after Mass 8:30am and Divine mercy Prayer Saturday before Mass at 4:15pm.

Holy Week: The Passion of the Lord dominates these solemn days leading to the ultimate triumph of Easter Joy. The Paschal fast is observed on Good Friday and continues, where possible, until the Easter Vigil itself.

The Chrism Mass for the Diocese of Winona-Rochester will be held on April 3 at 4 pm at St. Augustine Church in Austin. Bishop Barron will preside.

The Sacred Paschal Triduum: “Since Christ accomplished his work of human redemption and of the perfect glorification of God principally through his Paschal Mystery, in which by dying he has destroyed our death, and by rising restored our life, the sacred Paschal Triduum of the passion and resurrection of the Lord shines forth as the high point of the entire liturgical year. Therefore, the preeminence that Sunday has in the week, the Solemnity of Easter has in the liturgical year. The Paschal Triduum of the Passion and Resurrection of the Lord begins with the evening Mass of the Lord’s Supper, has its center in the Easter Vigil, and closes with Vespers (evening prayer) on the Sunday of the Resurrection” Universal Norms, Ordo 2023.

Easter Flowers: Our parishes are accepting donations in memory or honor of a loved one, if you would like to make a donation, please mark on the envelope who the donation is from, and who you wish to notate as memory of or in honor of. Thank you for your donations and support. If you are visiting one of the other parishes in our cluster, you can put the name of the parish that your donation should go to. Thank You

Fr. Tom Jennings needs prayers. His medical team is currently in the process of determining treatment. Please keep him in your prayers.

Eucharistic Revival. Please join us for Episode 5 The Wedding Gift of “The Chosen” Season 1 & Bible Reflection on Wednesday, March 29th at the Holy Trinity Community Center. The invitation to attend is for Holy Trinity parishioners, as well as others in the Tri-Parish and Rollingstone communities. We will begin at 6 pm with a free will offering simple meal shared with the Holy Trinity Faith Formation in the Holy Trinity Community Center. At 7pm, we will watch Episode 5 and have a brief discussion following the video. In this episode we will get a glimpse of the how a marriage was celebrated at the time of Jesus. We will experience Jesus's first "public" miracle as He changes water into wine. There will be many more miracles that will occur in his journey of proclaiming the good news and ultimately lead to His death and resurrection. We will reflect on how we need to put our trust in Jesus (as his mother Mary did) to do what he says in times when we are "empty"; so we that our emptiness is changed into the fullness of His perfect love.

There is still time to join us; if you are interested in attending, contact Becky McCormick at 507-689-0398. We are still looking for individuals who would like to provide a soup, or bread, or assist in serving for the remaining seven sessions. Contact Chris Klein at 507-458-3994, or sign up on the poster in the Holy Trinity Church narthex.

Eucharistic Revival Corner

Sign Up for the Eucharistic Congress to take advantage of the reduced ticket price of $35.00 for adults and $15.00 for youth (ages 8-17) and free for ages 7 and under. After March 31st the price will increase.

Registration is on-line at: <https://eucharist.dowr.org>. After attending the event, our parishes will reimburse the cost of the ticket to attend. There are also scholarships available.

This weekend (March 25, 26) after the mass at each parish, we will have an individual assist parishioners who do not have internet access to register. We are exploring transportation options (bus) so we can go up as a group. In order for us to do this, we need to know how many will be attending. Please register as soon as possible and notify us. While all are welcome to attend, we would like to see representation from this year's First Communicants, Confirmation, RCIA, and those who have been married in the past three years.

My Dear Parishioners,

We struggle these days in talking about death. Until the last century most people rarely, if ever, talked openly about sexuality, but all were familiar with death because family members died at home: a mother in childbirth, small children from infectious diseases, and grandparents from the ills of old age. Nowadays the reverse is true. Discussion about sex and sexuality is commonplace in our world and death has become the great taboo.

Death in this country is mainly compartmentalized in hospitals, hospices, and nursing homes, where the dying are surrounded by high-tech equipment and professional personnel who do the best they can to ease the pain and suffering. We ourselves may be so troubled or even afraid to think about death that we do not use the words "died" or "dead" in ordinary conversation. Most people prefer to substitute another word or phrase: "Grandpa passed away." "We lost Uncle David." "Jean has gone to be with the Lord."

Today's Readings are all about death but, even more powerfully, about the ability of our Lord and God to raise us up from death. There is the death of the spirit in this life, when a person turns away from God or simply becomes apathetic or goes through the motions of belief; and there is the final death of the earthly body that must come inevitably to each of us. If we do not tackle the "little death" of apathy and failure to live as a disciple of Jesus, we are unlikely to face the end of our mortal life with either hope or peace in our hearts. The Good News of Jesus is that we can rise from the little deaths of sinfulness and indifference—beginning right now—and because he died and rose again we can hope for eternal life with him.

What can you do?

- Make a will. Plan your own funeral.
- For someone you know: Visit a dying or grieving person. Listen to them, pray with them, be a simple comforting presence.
- For your parish family: Encourage family members and friends who have lost loved ones to join our Bereavement group when it's offered.

Keep smiling.
