The Sacred Paschal Triduum: We usually assume that the liturgies of the Triduum are dramatic 'reenactments' of events, by turns touching, tragic and triumphant, which happened during Jesus' last days and culminated in his victory over death. It is seen as springtime's parallel to winter's Christmas. People are encouraged to imagine they are 'actually present' at these events, comforting Jesus during his fearful watch in Gethsemane, walking with him along the via crucis, and witnessing his miraculous 'return to life' on Easter morning. This view may frequently be reinforced by popular hymns that focus on the 'historical facts' of the celebration.

Because these faith-anchoring events are historical, however, they cannot be repeated or 'reenacted'. That is why the church's long tradition insists that what happened once in history passes over into the mystery of the assembly's liturgical/sacramental celebrations. What the paschal triduum actually celebrates is mystery, not history; anamnesis, not mimesis. The liturgies of these days do not take us back to the upper room or the path to calvary. Their ultimate purpose is not to retrace or relive the last hours of Jesus' life – nor to catch sight of him emerging from the tomb at Easter's morning.

They celebrate not once happened to Jesus but what is now happening among us as a people called to conversion, gathered in faith, and gifted with the spirit of holiness. They celebrate God's taking possession of our hearts at their deepest core, recreating us as a new human community broken like bread for the world's life – a community rich in compassion, steadfast in hope, and fearless in the search for justice and peace. (Ordo 2023 p.104).

Chrism Mass will be celebrated at St Augustine Church, Austin on Monday, April 4, 2023 at 4pm.

Travelling Eucharistic Miracles Display: The Cathedral of the Sacred Heart in Winona will be hosting the Vatican Exhibit of Eucharistic Miracles from April 15 – 20. We invite you to stop by the exhibit and witness how Jesus has miraculously manifested himself throughout the centuries containing over 100 historically documented Eucharistic Miracles. The times the exhibit will be open are 9.00am – 7.00pm April 15 – 19 and 9.00am – 1.00pm April 20, and there is no cost to attend. All faith backgrounds and ages are welcome. The exhibit was initially created by Bl. Carlos Acutis, patron of the National Eucharistic Revival. My Dear Parishioners,

Today's Gospel before the blessing of the palms presents an exuberant scene. Imagine the large crowd just outside Jerusalem spreading their cloaks on the road, breaking off palm fronds, strewing them about and waving them as Jesus passes by. Hear the people shouting, "Hosanna to the Son of David." As Jesus enters the city, the people there are asking, "Who is this?" The crowd accompanying him answers: "This is Jesus the prophet, from Nazareth of Galilee. This is the one who comes in the name of the Lord." A journey of joy.

But a few days later Jesus took his last journey: a winding walk from the upper room on Thursday night out to the garden of Gethsemane, then to the house of Caiaphas, on to Pilate's house and courtyard, and, finally, to the hill of Calvary. During this time, he was spat on and struck, stripped, scourged, and crowned with thorns; he was denounced, mocked, and ridiculed. Most likely some of the same crowd that cried out "Hosanna" cried out, "Crucify him!" It ended with his being nailed to a cross, and after three torturous hours, he died. At this journey's end, there was one final cry from a small group, a centurion and the men with him: "Truly, this was the Son of God!" (Matthew 27:54).

Allow some time to relive these two journeys. You might hear some things you haven't noticed before. Perhaps the words of one of the secondary characters—or Jesus' response to a particular situation—or his silence before another will speak to you this time.

We pray that we will follow Jesus faithfully all the days of our life, recognizing him as the one who continues to come in the name of the Father bringing life. We ask that we may trust in God as Jesus did until we see God face to face.

Keep smiling.
