From our Pastor

Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

We are enjoying some lovely hot summer days. Again, as I settle into the new parishes, I find myself filled with extraordinary gratitude. It seems to me that I have the best of both worlds with these parishes. I absolutely love this area around Winona called the Driftless region with the bluffs and the Mississippi river. I love going for hikes in the bluffs and exploring new areas. Rushford and Rollingstone are still right in the midst of those bluffs and so what a treat to enjoy the beautiful views.

Rushford is also home to a number of bike trails that I look forward to hopefully taking advantage of (I need to take my bike in for some tuning and new tires though first!) I have let my bike sit for a couple of years now since I got the One Wheel. It has also been a number of years but I might try and get out and do some kayaking on the Root River.

In addition to the bluffs though I am very grateful to be here in Lewiston to be also surrounded by endless fields of crops of corn and beans. Again, growing up out in the country, I love the wide-open spaces and watching the tilling, planting, the summer growth and the harvest of the local farmers. I am also very grateful as I am fairly close to most of my family as well as dear priest friends and personal friends.

As I continue to settle into the parishes as well, I know a number of folks who have shared they would like to have me over at some point. I would love to come to your homes, do house blessings, share a meal, play some games or whatever you desire. I want to get to know you and your families and learn the best ways I can love and serve you! In the words of St. John Vianney, a very holy parish priest of Ars France in the 1800s, "The priest is not for himself. The priest is for you." I find that when there are many people to try to get to know, the best way for me to really get to know people is by spending quality time with them. It is hard for me to really get to know people and remember names if it is a quick passing encounter. Please feel free to email me or give the parish a call if you are interested and we can look at setting something up.

Know of my prayers for you. Please pray for me.

Fr. Michael
