Grant us O Lord, we pray,
That the course of our world,
May be directed by your peaceful rule
And that your church may rejoice,
Untroubled in her devotion,
Through our Lord Jesus
Christ, your Son.
Who lives and reigns with you in the
Unity of the Holy Spirit,
God, for ever and ever.

From our Pastor

Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Last Sunday, August 23rd, was the Memorial of St. Rose of Lima. Since her Memorial fell on a Sunday this year, it was superseded by the 21st Sunday in Ordinary Time. The following words are a letter from St. Rose of Lima which are read on her Memorial as part of the Liturgy of the Hours, which priests and religious pray every day.

Our Lord and Saviour lifted up his voice and said with incomparable majesty: "Let all men know that grace comes after tribulation. Let them know that without the burden of afflictions it is impossible to reach the height of grace. Let them know that the gifts of grace increase as the struggles increase. Let men take care not to stray and be deceived. This is the only true stairway to paradise, and without the cross they can find no road to climb to heaven."

When I heard these words, a strong force came upon me and seemed to place me in the middle of a street, so that I might say in a loud voice to people of every age, sex and status: "Hear, O people; hear, O nations. I am warning you about the commandment of Christ by using words that came from his own lips: We cannot obtain grace unless we suffer afflictions. We must heap trouble upon trouble to attain a deep participation in the divine nature, the glory of the sons of God and perfect happiness of soul."

That same force strongly urged me to proclaim the beauty of divine grace. It pressed me so that my breath came slow and forced me to sweat and pant. I felt as if my soul could no longer be kept in the prison of the body, but that it had burst its chains and was free and alone and was going very swiftly through the whole world saying: "If only mortals would learn how great it is to possess divine grace, how beautiful, how noble, how precious. How many riches it hides within itself, how many joys and delights! Without doubt they would devote all their care and concern to winning for themselves pains and afflictions. All men throughout the world would seek trouble, infirmities and torments, instead of good fortune, in order to attain the unfathomable treasure of grace. This is the reward and the final gain of patience. No one would complain about his cross or about troubles that may happen to him, if he would come to know the scales on which they are weighed when they are distributed to men."

Know of my prayers for you. Please pray for me.

Fr. Michael

Saint Rose of Lima was born Isabel Flores de Oliva in 1586 in Lima, Peru. She took the name Rose at her confirmation.

She spent time tending to her family garden during the day and sewing during the evenings to financially support her family.

St Rose of Lima is a radiant example of selfless love and devotion; we turn to her in prayer.

Inspire us to serve the suffering with a compassionate heart.

May we follow your footsteps in pursuing holiness.

Amen.
