Cor Jesu, an opportunity to participate in Eucharistic Adoration on the First Friday of each month, is Friday November 6 at Cathedral of the Sacred Heart in Winona at 7pm. Worship music, adoration of Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament with confession available is a beautiful way to deepen your relationship with Jesus.

Diocese Joins 40 Days for Life Prayer Vigil in Rochester: Bishop Barron joined seminarians from Immaculate Heart of Mary Seminary and faithful from across the Diocese of Winona-Rochester in prayer outside Planned Parenthood in Rochester last Wednesday evening as part of the 40 Days for Life campaign. This international pro-life initiative brings communities together for 40 days of prayer and fasting, community outreach, and peaceful prayer vigils outside abortion facilities.

Together, they prayed for the protection of all human life, for mothers and families, and for a greater respect for the dignity of every human person, from conception to natural death.

We Pray for More Priest. We need to fill the pews.

May the souls of the faithful departed rest in peace and find eternal light. Wishing you peace on All Soul's Day.

From your pastor.

Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

On this great Solemnity of All Saints, I wanted to share with all of you a Saint that means a great deal to me and has had a very profound impact on my life. She has become quite a popular Saint known to many throughout the world. Her name is Saint Therese of Lisieux. I first learned about her in a superficial way at the conclusion of my first year of college. I had been asked earlier that year by a priest if I had given serious thought and consideration about being a priest. I had answered honestly that I had never really considered it. That question and my answer began to eat away at me and I just wanted a quick answer- does Jesus want me to be a Priest or not. I heard there was a novena- a nine-day prayer petition- to St. Therese of Lisieux where one could ask for a rose as a sign. I began the novena, desiring my quick answer, but as I prayed, I realized I was not ready to know the answer. However, I received the sign for priesthood. I noted it, but by some wise counsel of another priest, I continued where I was and continued to simply pray and grow.

It was not until years later while in seminary that I began to read some of her writings. At first, I was not particularly moved by them, but as I continued, I realized there was real depth and profound insights. It was on her Feast day on October 1st, about a year before I was to be ordained a Deacon and commit my life to Christ in this radical way, that she particularly spoke to my heart. Her own littleness and her spirituality of the 'little way,' pulled at my heart. I read in her autobiography shortly thereafter, the words I would write on my Ordination holy card, "I am only a child, powerless and weak, but it is my very weakness that gives me the boldness to offer myself as a victim to Your Love, Jesus! Oh Jesus, I know, love is repaid only by love, so I sought, I found, the means to relieve my heart by rendering to you, Love for Love."

I felt terribly small and weak and incapable of really living up to the ideal of the Priesthood of Jesus Christ. St. Therese knew deeply and intimately her own weakness and littleness, but she learned to live with extraordinary confidence of God's goodness and love and that he delighted to lower himself to her to raise her to great heights.

St. Therese was indeed incredibly small and unknown. She entered the Carmelite Convent (a cloistered convent, which means she never left) at the age of 15. She suffered a drawn out and grueling death from tuberculosis at the age of 24. Yet after her death, her writings and spirituality became quickly known and popularized around the world. Although she never left her little convent in France, she is called upon as the patron saint of the world missions. And she has had a profound impact on this young little priest from Minnesota. The lives of the Saints give us beautiful witness of how to live for Christ and can indeed help us along our pilgrim way, as they are truly alive in Christ. Who is the Saint (or Saints) who have spoken to your heart and who inspires you to live fully for Jesus Christ?
Know of my prayers for you. Please pray for me.

Fr. Michael
