Tri-Parish News and Notes

Prayer for the Diocesan Synod

Most High and Gracious God, We implore you for the outpouring of the Holy Spirit on the Diocese of Winona-Rochester as we embark on the Diocesan Synod for Evangelization and Vocations. We ask you to send us graces for wisdom and insight into how we can proclaim the Gospel and invite your sons and daughters into a right relationship with Your Son Jesus Christ. As we seek your graces to make you known and loved, we also beg you for the grace to invite each member of our Diocese to serve you with the gift of their lives in service to the Church especially in more vocations to the Priesthood and Consecrated Life. Give us the gift of your Spirit for right discernment and clarity of approach so that we might faithfully carry out Your will in this Diocese and in each of our parishes. We pray in gratitude for every gift and blessing You bestow and put our full confidence in Your holy will. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, in union with the Father and the Holy Spirit, God forever and ever. Amen.

Trust in God's Ways

Today's readings invite us to trust in God's ways. The author of the Book of Wisdom reminds us of the faith of our early ancestors, who had been enslaved in Egypt yet trusted that God would lead them to freedom.

In the letter to the Hebrews, we hear how Abraham, a still earlier ancestor, placed his life in the hands of God, trusting that God would lead him to a new land, where he would become the ancestor of countless believers. Those who claim Abraham as an ancestor include Jews, Muslims and Christians.

The extensive passage in the reading from the Gospel of Luke can be divided into several parts. In the opening verses, Jesus instructs his disciples about possessions, about being prepared or watchful for the Lord's return, about responsible leadership. It can be helpful to keep in mind that this instruction takes place while Jesus is on his way to Jerusalem.

The first instruction is quite clear. While it was not likely to be taken literally (to sell everything one has is not realistic), it emphasizes that the disciples should not be attached to possessions. The second instruction stresses the importance of being prepared for the Lord's return whenever that may be. Finally, the third instruction offers the disciples a warning about how to use or not use the authority they have been given. Positions of privilege can lure people to take advantage of others. Such is not the behavior of a disciple of Jesus.

Who in your life has been an example of faithfulness?

Ponder the words "For where your treasure is, there also will your heart be". Where is your treasure? Is this a good place for your heart?

Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary.
