Matthew 2:2

Dear parishioners,

The season of Christmas flows seamlessly into the season of Epiphany. The season of Epiphany is for recognizing that this Child in the manger is not only fully human but is also the fully divine Son of God. This is the golden thread that weaves together the season of Epiphany. "Manifestation" or "revealing" is the meaning of the Greek word "epiphany."

The birth of Jesus in Bethlehem on Christmas night was unnoticed by the world. Yet God the Father did not want the arrival of Jesus to be hidden. Rather, it was necessary that the arrival of the Messiah be "un-hidden", and that his divinity be revealed. These moments of "un-hiding" who Jesus truly was are moments of "epiphany."

Today we recall the arrival of the Magi, who came to worship the newborn King. This is the moment of the Epiphany. Yet this glorious moment of Jesus was not the only epiphany. The whole life of Jesus reveals who God is, and thus, alongside the big epiphanies, there are also the little, daily epiphanies of Jesus. Joseph and Mary, during the long hidden years of life with Jesus in Nazareth, doubtless saw many little epiphanies of God. It could not have been any other way.

And here is an important aspect of Christian living: it is these little epiphanies that Christians are called to recognize in their own lives. Every new Christian throughout history begins a new life at baptism. In this new life, a person is freed from the bondage of sin and is ushered into a new way of life that points toward heaven. A slow process of transformation is now underway, and each day the person is becoming more Christ-like. As the days of the earthly exile pass by, a slow revelation is emerging as the individual Christian is shaped more and more into the person of Jesus Christ. Thus, a Christian life should be a slow epiphany, a manifesting to the world of another "Christ."

This opens up a special panorama of Christian living.

There is nothing ordinary about the life of a baptized child of God. As the work of grace begins to accomplish its task, Christian life on earth becomes more and more like the life of heaven. Heaven and earth do touch. There, in the circle of family life, as in the hidden years of Nazareth for Mary and Joseph, God's presence makes itself clear in a myriad of little epiphanies. What are some of the little epiphanies of Christian living? For a Christian, a shared family meal, with the joys and interactions that come from simply being together as family, becomes a foretaste of what heaven will be. Every time spouses love each other, there is a foretaste of something even greater yet to come: the wedding feast of heaven. Losing oneself in awe before a sunrise or sunset is another moment in which our soul recognizes God's grandeur. A quiet moment in a chapel alongside a flickering red candle where we bow our heads to acknowledge God's presence. In these little epiphanies, we are recognizing that God is with us.

Like Moses, we remove our sandals, recognizing that we are on holy ground. Indeed, the epiphanies of God are a daily gift to those who live faithful Christian lives.

Sincerely,
Rev.TK

"Since from you shall come a ruler, who is to shepherd my people Israel." Matthew 2:6

God is Calling You

St Paul offers many different opportunities for returning our gifts of time and talent to God. As stewards of God-given skills and abilities, volunteering in a ministry or organization provides a way to thank God, share our faith with others, and enhance our community. Three important ones: Lectoring, Minister of the Eucharist and Homebound Ministries are in need of assistance. If you feel you are being called to one or more of these very satisfying ministries, please contact

Deacon Gary Robinson at (361) 548-4152 or the office at (361) 937-3864 for more information.

The Epiphany of the Lord
The Star of Bethlehem

Almost every year at Christmastime, you can find a newspaper article or TV documentary about the star of Bethlehem. Astronomers give various theories about whether the magi saw a supernova, or a comet, or a conjunction of two or more planets. But for us, the star has a deeper meaning.

In Matthew's Gospel, light is used as a symbol of the good news of Jesus coming into the world. That's why verse 9 of the Gospel has the image of the star preceding the wise men and stopping over the house where Jesus was. By following the star, they become followers of Christ. So what do the magi show us about following Jesus? First, they take the initiative. They saw the star, figured out what it meant, and made their journey. As followers of Jesus, we can look for what needs to be done (in our family, parish, or community) and do it.

Second, they expressed their faith in Jesus by the gifts they brought: gold—a gift for a king, who is worthy to be followed; frankincense—Jesus is worthy to be worshiped as Son of God; and myrrh—Jesus becomes king by dying for us all. We can express our faith in many ways. We can volunteer to help the poor, the elderly, or the disabled. We can teach our children how to pray and tell them about all that God has done for us.

Third, they were not afraid to take risks for Jesus. How often do we take risks for the Lord, by openly speaking about our faith, or giving God credit for the good that we do? Let the star of Bethlehem remind us that Jesus is the star of our lives.
