Dear Parishioners,

On the day of his inaugural mass, Pope Leo XIV spoke about the mission of Peter. When a new pope begins his pontificate, many people are eager to get a glimpse inside his mind and heart to better understand the new pontiff. On this day, Pope Leo told us that Peter was given a mission by God with two dimensions. He was to love and to unite. Being a uniting element within the Church will be a welcome gift to all Catholics. Revealing the charity of Christ will be a welcome gift to the whole world. The Gospel passage that the pope used was the miraculous catch of fish in John 21, which is a post-Resurrection episode. Peter is the first to come to the shore, leading the other disciples to Christ. Peter also brings in the net full of fish, all united together. This symbolizes his role of unity within the Church.

Today, as back then, the Pope is to be a "fisher" of humanity, as was Christ. The pope says: "After the resurrection, it is up to them to carry on this mission, to cast their nets again and again, to bring the hope of the Gospel into the "waters" of the world, to sail the seas of life so that all may experience God's embrace."

Pope Leo then tells us about the sacrificial love that Peter, in particular, is to have: "When Jesus asks Peter, "Simon, son of John, do you love me more than these?" (Jn 21:16), he is referring to the love of the Father. It is as if Jesus said to him, "Only if you have known and experienced this love of God, which never fails, will you be able to feed my lambs. Only in the love of God the Father will you be able to love your brothers and sisters with that same 'more', that is, by offering your life for your brothers and sisters." - Taken from Pope Leo XIV's Inaugural mass (May 18 th , 2025)

In an analogous way, as Catholics, we should all feel called to live with a deep and sacrificial charity towards all, and to be a person who brings together and unites as opposed to being someone who divides and causes disunity.

Sincerely,
Rev. TK

God is Calling You

St Paul offers many different opportunities for returning our gifts of time and talent to God. As stewards of God-given skills and abilities, volunteering in a ministry or organization provides a way to thank God, share our faith with others, and enhance our community. Three important ones: Lectoring, Minister of the Eucharist and Homebound Ministries are in need of assistance. If you feel you are being called to one or more of these very satisfying ministries, please contact the office at (361) 937-3864 for more information.

Deacon Gary Robinson at (361) 548-4152 or

St Francis de Sales

Francis was destined by his father to be a lawyer so that the young man could eventually take his elder's place as a senator from the province of Savoy in France. For this reason Francis was sent to Padua to study law. After receiving his doctorate, he returned home and, in due time, told his parents he wished to enter the priesthood. His father strongly opposed Francis in this, and only after much patient persuasiveness on the part of the gentle Francis did his father finally consent. Francis was ordained and elected provost of the Diocese of Geneva, then a center for the Calvinists. Francis set out to convert them, especially in the district of Chablais. By preaching and distributing the little pamphlets he wrote to explain true Catholic doctrine, he had remarkable success.

At 35, he became bishop of Geneva. While administering his diocese he continued to preach, hear confessions, and catechize the children. His gentle character was a great asset in winning souls. He practiced his own axiom, "A spoonful of honey attracts more flies than a barrelful of vinegar."

Besides his two well-known books, the Introduction to the Devout Life and A Treatise on the Love of God, he wrote many pamphlets and carried on a vast correspondence. For his writings, he has been named patron of the Catholic Press. His writings, filled with his characteristic gentle spirit, are addressed to lay people. He wants to make them understand that they too are called to be saints. As he wrote in The Introduction to the Devout Life: "It is an error, or rather a heresy, to say devotion is incompatible with the life of a soldier, a tradesman, a prince, or a married woman.... It has happened that many have lost perfection in the desert who had preserved it in the world."

In spite of his busy and comparatively short life, he had time to collaborate with another saint, Jane Frances de Chantal, in the work of establishing the Sisters of the Visitation. These women were to practice the virtues exemplified in Mary's visit to Elizabeth: humility, piety, and mutual charity. They at first engaged to a limited degree in works of mercy for the poor and the sick. Today, while some communities conduct schools, others live a strictly contemplative life.

"Repent, for the Kingdom of Heaven is at Hand"

In Matthew's Gospel, Jesus' first public words are, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand." These were likewise the words of St. John the Baptist (Matt. 3:2), and now that John has been arrested for speaking inconvenient and uncomfortable truths to the powers-that-be, Jesus takes up the same message with a new authority and urgency.

While we often think of the word "repent" as a Lenten message – a sorrowful self-condemnation for our sins – the Greek word "metanoieo" refers to a deep interior conversion, a reorientation, a change in heart and mind and direction. If we are turning away from something, we must be turning toward something else. Yes, repenting means to turn away from sin, but more importantly, a turning toward God. The Catechism tells us that it is "a radical reorientation of our whole life, a return, a conversion to God with all our heart." (CCC 1431)

In order to turn fully toward God, we must turn away from all that keeps us from seeing Him clearly and drawing near to Him as our loving Father. So while part of repentance is looking at our sin, confessing to a priest, and intending not to sin again, the better part is looking at the Lord, seeing His Truth and Beauty and Goodness, and opening ourselves to love Him more than ourselves, our sin, and our comfort.

Why? Because the Kingdom of Heaven is near; the King has arrived and the reign of God begins now. This Kingdom is not a political or earthly administration of borders and laws, but the reign of the King of Love, present to us in our hearts, in the Word, and in the Sacraments. St. Augustine teaches that the Church is the seed and beginning of this Kingdom on earth; we are made citizens of this Kingdom and true members of the family of the King through Baptism, and we grow to maturity through the Sacraments and prayer and service.

John prepared the way but Jesus is the way, which He will later make clear. This call to "repent" is a call to hope: hope in the loving Heart of the Savior who came to bring reconciliation and peace, hope in the call and value of each and every life, hope in the truth that no one can out-sin God's mercy and love, hope in the certain victory of the Kingdom of Love.
