A message from Father Tomasz

Dear brothers and sisters,

In the Gospels, it often seems that the Pharisees are the bad guys. They seem to be waiting around every corner, scheming up ways to attack Jesus. Today, in the Christian imagination, these men are often dismissed entirely as greedy, hypocritical, and stubborn people who are far from the Kingdom of God. But there is more to their story, and we should rethink them today. There are the three things about the Pharisees. First, they were members of the Jewish people who could never make peace with the fact that the Gentiles, in this case, the Romans, had taken over God's holy land and subjugated God's holy people. As such, they teach us to never make peace with sin in our lives.

Second, they were men and women who were sincerely saddened and tired of their own people's inability to stay in covenant with God. They wanted to make things right with God. As such, they teach us to seek God in all things and to attempt to live before him in humility and reverence.

Third, they wanted to do everything they could to regain God's favor in order to right their wrongs. Their main attempt at this was to try to bring the holiness of the Temple into their personal lives.

Thus, the rules regarding the Temple were extended to all of domestic life. As such, they teach us to aim for true holiness and to take our Christian faith seriously. The big pharisaical problem was that the intentions were noble to begin but over time, things changed.

As the Pharisees gained respect and influence, a type of spiritual pride began to spread among them. This spiritual pride is often the focal point of Jesus' criticisms leveled against them. Jesus did not have an issue per se with their religiosity, their penchant for staying clean. It was rather their spiritual pride. Perhaps it is common danger for a spiritual person to feel that they are better than others and that they have earned a right to judge others. Jesus said to the Pharisees: "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you clean the outside of the cup and of the plate, but inside they are full of greed and self-indulgence. You blind Pharisee! First clean the inside of the cup, so that the outside also may become clean. Yes, the Pharisees got many things right. We should imitate their fervor and sincere desire to be faithful to God. But, let us not be like them in their hypocrisy and spiritual pride. They forgot to walk humbly with their God, as the Prophet Micah tells us all: And what does the Lord require of you? To act justly and to love mercy and to walk humbly with your God."

Sincerely,
 Rev.TK

Saint Gregory the Great (540-604) September 3

Imagine, fourteen hundred years after death, boasting a best-selling CD! Yet outside the Church and within, "Gregorian" chant is enjoying a renaissance. Still, the timeless sacred music that bears his name is but part of Gregory's legacy. Renouncing civic service for monastic life, Gregory's administrative and diplomatic skills prompted continual summons from the cloister. Papal ambassador and advisor, he was eventually elected pope himself, renowned as a wise steward of the Church's material possessions, generous benefactor of the poor, sponsor of missionaries, and promotor of monasticism. His liturgical enrichment of the Church endures not only in Gregorian chant, but in eloquent homilies still gracing the Liturgy of the Hours, the "Gregorian Canon" (Eucharistic Prayer I), and his spiritual classic, Pastoral Care, once presented to new bishops at ordination. Of countless impressive papal titles—Supreme Pontiff, Vicar of Christ, Successor of Saint Peter, Prince of the Apostles—the title still so cherished that it heads official documents is the one Gregory coined to describe his papal ideal: Servant of the Servants of God. Together with being designated "the Great," a fitting epitaph.

Twenty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time Partying with Angels

While the first reading from Sirach and the Gospel focus on humility, with a surprise reversal of the humble being exalted, the reading from Hebrews surprises us in a different way. The author uses apocalyptic imagery to show how much the relationship between God and humanity has changed. He starts with images of fire, storms, and trumpet blasts—images that may remind you of an erupting volcano. Even God's words brought fear and trembling.

It may not be surprising that God is beyond human comprehension, but Hebrews says no. God doesn't want to be so far beyond us that we only approach in fear. Using more images from the end-time, the author gives us a picture of the baptized partying with angels and all the just who have died. And of course God is the host. Let's look at some of those images to see how our relationship with the Lord has grown.

The heavenly Jerusalem reminds us that the Church is our home—not just your parish church building but the whole community of faith. How "at home" are you with your fellow parishioners? A church community can be a place to support those who are sick or jobless or depressed. It is also a place to be supported, to see God's love in action. The angels in Hebrews may be a symbol of that support.

The "firstborn" and "spirits of the just" could remind us of those who went before us and now rest in the Lord. They had their own struggles in life, and now live in glory. They help us to keep our true goal in mind, eternal life.

Jesus came to show us how much God loves us and how close God can be. When he shed his blood on the cross (the final sign in our reading), he renewed the covenant with God's people. We accept that gift not just by a verbal statement of faith, but by a life lived as Jesus showed us, in love of God and our neighbor.
