CHRIST THE KING

Dear Parishioners,

One of the best ways to understand the Bible is to think of the Old Testament as presenting God's many promises to Israel and to think of the New Testament as the fulfillment of all those promises. The Old Testament tells the story of "promises made". The New Testament tells the story of "promises kept". For example, the Old Testament includes many foreshadowings, such as the Manna in the desert. The New Testament reveals the deeper meaning of the foreshadowings, such as the New Manna, the Eucharist. Today's feast gives us the Old Testament King David as a foreshadowing of the kingship of Christ, the King of kings. The Covenant that God made with David promised an everlasting kingdom to David's descendant, fulfilled in Jesus. To David, God said: "When your days are fulfilled and you lie down with your fathers, I will raise up your offspring after you, who shall come from your body, and I will establish his kingdom. He shall build a house for my name, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom forever. I will be to him a father, and he shall be to me a son." ~ 2 Samuel 7:12-14

The Biblical links between David and Jesus are plentiful. Here are just five: first, both David and Christ were born in Bethlehem. This highlights that Jesus is the fulfillment of the Davidic Kingship and the promised Messiah. What started with David was fulfilled by Jesus. Second, David was a humble shepherd protecting his flock. David thus prefigured Jesus as the Good Shepherd who will lay down his life for his sheep (John 10:11). Jesus, as our King, rules over us with love, care, and protection, as the Good Shepherd. Third, David was anointed with oil by the prophet Samuel as God's chosen king. Jesus, the Anointed One, received the Holy Spirit's anointing at his baptism in the presence of the prophet John the Baptist. Fourth, David was rejected by his own people, betrayed, and forced into exile when Absalom rose against him (2 Samuel 15). This prefigures Jesus' rejection by Israel, betrayal by Judas, and his suffering and death on a cross. Fifth, David was able to defeat giants. He conquered the great enemy of Israel: Goliath. In this battle, David was unexpectedly victorious. Jesus also defeats giants, namely Satan and Death. When Jesus defeated the powers of evil, one could say he did this, from the perspective of the world, unexpectedly: by dying on a cross.

This is partly why our Gospel reading presents to us Christ on His cross. We should, as his loyal subjects, accompany him on the cross by joining our daily prayers and sacrifices to him. Christ's kingdom is not of this world. It is different. We may also need to purify our understanding of the Kingdom of Christ and the kingdoms of this world. Jesus is a different kind of King than we are used to. He is not like other kings. Rather than use his Kingship for his own benefit, Christ uses his reign for our good. The Catechism says: [Christ] exercises his kingship by drawing all men to himself through his death and Resurrection. Christ, King and Lord of the universe, made himself the servant of all, for he came "not to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many".

Sincerely,
Rev.TK

Blessed Miguel Agustín Pro (1891-1927) November 23

Pope Benedict once declared himself struck by how remarkably diverse our American saints are—some native born: Mother Seton, Katherine Drexel, Kateri Tekakwitha; most, like many Catholics today, immigrants: Padre Serra, Bishop Neumann, Mother Cabrini, Rose Philippine Duchesne. When the French Revolution that dispersed her convent ended, Rose joined the Religious of the Sacred Heart, volunteering for their United States mission, opening the first free school west of the Mississippi. Only after lengthy service as Superior did Rose—now seventy-one—realize her life's dream, undertaking a mission among the Potawatomi Indians. When some worried about her advanced age and failing health, the Jesuit mission leader overruled them: "She must come! She may not be able to do much work, but she'll bring the mission success by praying for us!" Frustrated by her inability to learn their languages, Rose nevertheless "spoke" to the Native Americans by her prayerful presence before the tabernacle. "Quah-kah-ka-num-ad," they named her, "Woman-Who-Prays-Always"—their way of bestowing the title the Church would later make official: saint!

Our Lord Jesus Christ,
King of the Universe
Jesus, Remember Me

The man who hung on the cross next to Jesus asks him to "remember me when you come into your kingdom."

Of all the people who took part in the crucifixion of Jesus, only this man sincerely acknowledges Jesus as King. Only he receives the promise of joining Jesus in paradise that very day. I wonder if he knew what Jesus' kingdom meant?

The second reading gives us a better idea of the extent of that kingdom. Paul uses images of things visible and invisible, of dominions, principalities, and powers. Notice one short phrase that appears six times in that reading: "all things." If Christ is King of all things, that includes our possessions. We might keep that in mind, not only when deciding how much we give to the poor or to the Church, but also how we use the things we own. The things we watch on TV, the foods we eat, the books we read—all are under Jesus' kingship. I might even drive more carefully if I remember that my car belongs to the Lord.

Even our life is under his reign. That can remind us to trust Jesus more, as well as to ask for the guidance of his Spirit in our decisions. If we let the Lord guide our lives, we know that anything that happens to us is either God's will or something that Jesus can lead us through, on our way to paradise.
